

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XVIII.—NO. 162.

CITY OF KINGSTON (RONDOUT, P.O.) N. Y., SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1889.

WHOLE NO. 5,361.

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK.

—FIFTY DOZEN—

UNLAUNDRIED SHIRTS,

Warranted made of Wamsutta Muslin. Linen Bosoms, fully reinforced in back and front, endless facings in back and sleeves, all sizes 50 cents. Look through our

CARPET DEPARTMENT

—EXAMINE OUR—

WINDOW SHADES

—AND—

Lace Curtains.

—ASK PRICES OF OUR—

WALLPAPER.

Inspect our Dress Goods, and Ladies' and Gent's Furnishings, and you must be convinced that you can save money by purchasing from us. Fair play a jewel. Watch this space, there are bargains in it.

CROSBY & ENNIST'S,

No. 2 & 4 Union-Ave., Rondout, N. Y.

EASTER CARDS

—AND—

NOVELTIES

—AT—

S. L. DRAKE'S,

29 Wall-Street,

KINGSTON, N. Y.

Stebbins, Brodhead & VanWagenen.

Our Carpet Stock is more extensive and varied than we have ever before offered, and prices are such as to enable any thirty family to have handsome floor coverings of some sort.

Stebbins, Brodhead & VanWagenen.

168 Strand and 21 Ferry-St.

O. And O. TEA

The Choicest Tea Ever Offered. ABSOLUTELY PURE. MOST DELICIOUS BEVERAGE. TRY IT. You will never use any other. Quality never varies. It is the Highest Grade Leaf, picked from the best plantations and guaranteed absolutely pure and free from adulterations or coloring matter. The packages are hermetically sealed and warranted full weight. It is more economical in use than the lower grades.

ORIENTAL & OCCIDENTAL TEA CO., LTD.,

Head Office, 35 Burlington, New-York.

By sale by J. H. ALLEN, 71 Pierpoint-street, Rondout.

M. E. PARISH, Rondout, A. A. & C. R. STEVENS, Kingston, A. F. VAN BUREN, Rondout, P. E. TE BOW, Kingston, HENDRICKS & SWART, Kingston, W. M. DEKENBACHER, Rondout.

BABY CARRIAGES!

BABY CARRIAGES!

BABY CARRIAGES!

—AT—

WACHMEYER'S

Furniture Warehouse.

A beautiful line to select from. Reed and Rattan Carriages upholstered in the latest shades of Silk, Plush, Cretonne, Raw Silks and Satins.

Prices will be made to suit the purchaser. Look them over. They are bound to suit you, at

Wachmeyer's

178 THE STRAND,

RONDOUT, N. Y.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE vote on Prohibition in Massachusetts is all in, and the majority against it is 46,475. Only four counties voted for the amendment, and these are the smallest in the state.

THE Weldon bill passed the Canadian Senate yesterday. It had already passed the House of Commons. The Governor General will sign it, and Canada will cease to be a harbor of refuge for American criminals.

A DISPATCH from Sanford, Florida, denies the report of yellow fever there, and says there is only one case of sickness in the city. Doubts are entertained of the nature of the disease of the lady whose death was accredited to yellow fever.

THE North Carolina Emigration Association was organized at Raleigh yesterday. Resolutions were adopted recommending the colonization of all North Carolina negroes in Arkansas. Both political parties were denounced as enemies of the colored man, and as using their efforts to make him leave the country.

Provisions are cheap in the western towns of this state. In Scioto, Cayuga county, one dollar buys six dozen eggs and four bushels of potatoes, and one farmer offers to "throw in" a bushel of onions. The Democrats out there are still denouncing the "robber tariff" and bewailing the sufferings of the over-taxed consumer.

THE English Consul at Zanzibar has concluded to pay the £1,000 ransom demanded by the insurgent Chief Bushiri for the surrender of the missionaries, Revs. Taylor, Edwards and Hooper. After these men are rescued and safe, the British government will send down troops and thrash the life out of Bushiri. That is England's way.

The list of ladies for the quadrille of honor at the Centennial ball has been again revised, and now Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Cleveland are among them, as are also the names of Winthrop, Fish and Jay. The new names are those of Mrs. William Herbert Washington, Mrs. E. F. Jones, Mrs. Edward Cooper, Mrs. Robert F. Weir and Mrs. Frederick J. De Peyster.

TO-DAY is the sixty-seventh anniversary of Gen. Grant's birthday. He was born in 1822 at Point Pleasant, Ohio. He died at Mt. McGregor, near Saratoga, July 23, 1885. He is buried in New York, where his memory is being properly celebrated to-day, but where no monument has been erected in his honor. It is a comfort to reflect that he does not need one to immortalize his name.

THE rain of yesterday was very severe southward. At Baltimore the fall was 3.48 inches, at Washington 2.68 and at New York 1.70. The storm extended along the Atlantic from Texas to Maine, and the northeast winds were high and dangerous along the New England and Middle Atlantic coast. Fair weather prevails in the Northwest and Rocky Mountain districts, and will reach New York in good time for the Centennial.

THE Rhode Island and Delaware Legislatures have adjourned, after making as much noise as if they were doing business for the biggest states of the Union. Delaware will not get a constitutional convention, a local option law or a new state house. The first two were Republican measures which passed the House but were defeated in the Senate. The state house was a Democratic job, started in the Senate but killed in the House.

Mrs. SWIFT died in Philadelphia last Friday from indulgence last Sunday in eggnog, a beverage with which her husband always celebrates Easter. There was no poison in the drink, but the eggs had been kept too long in anticipation of the event. The grocer who sold them has been exonerated, on the ground that he could not see inside the eggs. The whole party was made violently sick, and several dangerously so.

THE Tribune tells Gov. Hill that his opportunity is right before him. He has got through with politics in this state, and must look outside of it for further preferment. He will find high license and ballot reform popular everywhere here, even among Democrats. If these considerations, which are full of truth, have due weight with the Governor, he may permit the two bills to become laws. It would be a master stroke of policy for him to do so, and make him the foremost politician in the country.

MISS LILLIE MEYER, who was assaulted in a Brooklyn knit-jacket factory on Thursday last week by two fellow shop-girls named Cullen and McKenney, has been pronounced by her physicians beyond the hope of recovery. Her assailants will probably be tried for murder. Miss Meyer and her younger sister were well educated girls, who had been compelled to work in the factory since the death of their father. The Cullen and McKenney girls accuse them of "putting on airs" and holding themselves aloof from the others. For this offense Lillie was murdered.

THE danger in which Vice-President Morton was placed yesterday by a railway accident proves the wisdom of Congress in the precautionary steps that it has taken. Had Mr. Morton been killed, Hon. J. J. Ingalls would return to his old place in the presiding chair of the Senate, as he was re-elected President pro tem at the recent session. No such election took place either to succeed Vice-President Arthur or Vice-President Hendricks in case of their vacating their offices, and both did vacate them before the beginning of the first regular session, the former by promotion to the Presidency and the latter by death. The narrow escape of Mr. Morton admonishes the country that the contingency of death is always to be considered. Of the twelve Vice Presidents elected in forty-eight years preceding the election of Mr. Morton, only five served out their full terms. The office of Vice President was vacant in that period for over eighteen years. The country is thankful that Mr. Morton escaped, and hopes he may live to honor the office to which he was elected till the end of his term and many happy years afterwards.

THE COMING CENTENNIAL.

Its Vastness Will Greatly Exceed The First Expectations.

NEW-YORK'S DECORATIONS.

About $3,000 Will be Spent Upon The City Hall.

THE NEXT WEEK'S WEATHER

What is Predicted for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS.

Great Demand for Tickets For Banquet and Ball.

GENERAL TELEGRAPH NEWS

PREPARING FOR THE CENTENNIAL. About $3,000 Will be Spent in Decorating The City Hall.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—A gang of men to-day started the work of decorating the City Hall, notwithstanding the steady down-pour of rain. The material used was all of such a character as was not injured by the drenching it received. About $3,000 will be spent in the work, as it is designed to make the City Hall the most handsomely decorated building in the City. The Centennial Committee was to-day given a renewed permit to erect the Union Square stand, the Army Committee having agreed to set apart at the Mayor's request, seats for 2,500 women and children free of charge.

MORTON WILL ACCOMPANY HARRISON.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—Vice-President Morton was busy at work in his study with his Secretary, when a reporter called at his residence this morning. The Vice-President never looked in better health. Yes, I escaped unscathed, as you see," he said pleasantly, in answer to the reporter's question. "The accident to the train as it pulled out of Baltimore, was only felt as a shock in our car at the rear, and did us no damage. I will meet President Harrison at Elizabeth on Monday and accompany the Presidential party to this City."

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—A gentleman connected with the Centennial Committee stated to-day that the celebration had grown beyond anybody's expectations, and had in fact, assumed such proportions that much dissatisfaction was being expressed by the committee. They had to do so there would not be a box in the Opera House for any one else. As it is, some one has given up his box for the convenience of the Diplomatics. As a matter of fact, when the first steps were taken, the Speaker said, it was intended to confine the celebration to New-York State, but it had grown and grown until now it had become a National affair, and the difficulty in the way of accommodating everybody was simply enormous. Much trouble, this gentleman also said, was likely to arise from the fact that the ball tickets were only available for the person to whom they were issued. In some cases they had been duplicated where attention had been called to the fact that certain prominent men's wives would be likely to accompany their husbands, would be unable to give admittance to the ball unless furnished with a ticket. In one case, a gentleman, whose wife had received a ticket of invitation to the ball as one of the "next of kin," had asked how his wife was expected to attend the ball without an escort. The speaker said that in all probability there would be a hundred disappointed people of that kind on Monday night [outside the Opera House] and therefore a general outcry might be looked for next Tuesday. The rain-fall in this City up to 8 o'clock this morning [the storm began] was 3.31 inches, with good prospects for a total of five inches before clear water.

NAVY YARDS TO BE CLOSED.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Secretary of the Navy has directed that all navy yards be closed on April 30.

SOME RECENT DISASTROUS FIRES.

Several Hundred Hands Thrown Out of Work by a Blaze at Lowell.

By Telegram to The Freeman. LOWELL, Mass., April 27.—The large five-story building of the Lowell Manufacturing Company, on Market street, known as the carpet mill, was gutted by fire early this morning, causing a loss of $300,000. The fire started in the card-room of the main building. The company had nearly $400,000 worth of new machinery in the building. Seven hundred hands are thrown out of work.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., April 27.—The Belle Prairie convent, in which four nuns conducted a school, was burned early yesterday morning. The 24 children were awakened and marched out safely. Loss $20,000. It is believed the fire was incendiary.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT.

Luther Caldwell, of New-York, Appointed to Position in P. O. Department.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Luther Caldwell, of New-York, has been appointed Chief of the Bond Division in the Post Office Department, vice Morrill Noyse, resigned. Roger Wells, of Connecticut, has been appointed Financial Clerk of the Patent Office, vice Jacob Fraibis, resigned. Francis A. Weaver, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed Chief of Division of Lands and Railroads in the Interior Department, vice John McMurray, resigned.

DELAWARE AND LEHIGH RIVERS RISING

Washout on a Railroad 90 Feet Long and Eight Feet Deep.

By Telegram to The Freeman. EASTON, Pa., April 27.—The Delaware and Lehigh Rivers are rising here rapidly and much damage is expected. The Lehigh Valley Railroad has a washout 90 feet long and eight feet deep on its east track at Pine Hollow. Owing to the continuance of the storm the track could not be repaired to-day.

Three Strikers Fined.

By Telegram to The Freeman. PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 27.—Three of the Duquesne Steel Works strikers were brought into court, to-day, and fined $500, $100 and $25 respectively for contempt of court in refusing to obey an injunction, issued several days ago, restraining them from interfering with workmen.

SPECTATORS CHEERED WHITE CAPS.

Man Whose Wife was Compelled to Support Him Given a Whipping.

CINCINNATI, April 27.—Last night a body of masked White Caps administered a whipping with long willow switches to Frank Geherline, of Riverside, a suburb west of the City. Geherline's offense is general worthlessness. His wife supported him and the family by keeping boarders. Last night a number of the boarders saw Geherline knock his wife down with a bucket in the back yard and then, without helping her up, walked off to a saloon for a drink. He was still in the saloon when a boy told him a man wanted to see him out doors. He went to the door, when he was seized, tied to a tree, partly deprived of his clothing and whipped for half an hour. A crowd of spectators cheered the White Caps.

IN PLUMMERVILLE BALLOT BOX CASE.

Reid Excused from Answering Certain Questions by Grand Jurors.

By Telegram to The Freeman. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 27.—In the Plummerville ballot box case, Charles C. Reid submitted to the Court his written answers to the questions asked him in relation to the statements made to him by O. T. Bentley. He stated that Bentley had made all the statements in connection with the ballot box robbery to him as an attorney. This will excuse Reid from stating to the Grand Jury the substance of Bentley's communications. Reid will be required to appear before the Grand Jury again, however, and give such other facts as he may know.

Unknown Steamer in Distress.

By Telegram to The Freeman. BEACPORT, N. C., April 27.—An unknown steamer is anchored close to the beach flying a signal. Pilots have attempted to cross the bar, but owing to the heavy sea they have been compelled to give up the attempt. The wind is blowing heavily from the south-west with continued rain squalls.

Weather Predictions for Next Week.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Captain Allen, who is the Predictions Officer at the Signal Service Bureau during this month, says the indications are that Monday in New-York will be a fair day, with a rather brisk north-west wind, and temperature somewhere between 55 and 60 degrees. Tuesday is likely to bring even better weather, as the present storm will be followed by an area high barometer, extending generally over the Atlantic coast.

To Receive a Large Pension.

By Telegram to The Freeman. LAWRENCE, Mass., April 27.—Timothy Reardon, a laborer, has received word from Washington that his claim for an original pension has been allowed. He receives all most $4,000 in arrears and $72 per month hereafter. He is totally blind. There is no age to be applied for a pension, but could not furnish the required evidence. He served one year.

Only Saw a Few Persons.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Governor Hovey, of Indiana, called at the White House this morning and spent some time with the President. Subsequently the President received Senator Hale by special appointment, but with these exceptions he excused himself to all callers.

Fatal Quarrel Over a Bond.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WHITE PLAINS, Mo., April 27.—William Summers, one of the most prominent men in the State, was killed last night by Hon. A. Livingston, a lawyer. The men quarreled about a bond they had given for a young man who had left the State.

To Be Closed on Sunday.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Postmaster General Wamamaker has ordered that hereafter the Post-Office Department shall be closed on Sunday to the clerks and all employees thereof, except the required watchmen, engineers and firemen.

Farmer's Terrible Death.

By Telegram to The Freeman. GARY, Ind., April 27.—W. G. Duck, a farmer, met with a terrible death yesterday. He was driving a team of oxen and fell under a roller he was using, the roller was pulled over him and he was killed instantly.

Sailed for Europe.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—Among the passengers who sailed for Europe to-day on the steamer Europa, ex-Secretary of War Endicott and wife and ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney and wife.

Secretary Noble and Wife Depart.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary and Mrs. Noble left Washington this morning for New-York. The Secretary is not expected to return until the conclusion of the Centennial ceremonies.

Will Not Get Chance to Sled.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—Inspector Byrnes to-day, had another score of "crooks" held for examination on May 2. The notorious "Kid" Miller was among those arraigned to-day.

Condition of Duke of Edinburgh.

By Cable to The Freeman. LONDON, April 27.—The Duke of Edinburgh reached Portsmouth to-day. His condition is better, though he is suffering from extreme weakness.

International Anti-Slavery Conference.

LONDON, April 27.—An International Anti-Slavery Congress will be held at Luzerne, Switzerland, in July. The Papal Delegate will preside.

Secretary Blaine Continues to Improve.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary Blaine continues to improve in health and expects to be able to go to New York Sunday night.

King of Holland to Go Abroad.

By Cable to The Freeman. THE HAGUE, April 27.—The King of Holland will go abroad on May 2 with the hope of affecting a complete cure of his disease.

Auburn Charter Bill Signed.

By Telegram to The Freeman. ALBANY, April 27.—The Governor has signed the bill amending the charter of Auburn.

Gold Exports.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—The gold exports this week were $1,140,000; imports, $110,000.

Death of a German Politician.

By Cable to The Freeman. BERLIN, April 27.—August William von Bernuth, a noted German politician, is dead.

MUTINY ON BRITISH BARK.

Presence of Harbor Police Put An End to Difficulty.

THE NEW LICENSE LAW

Will Close 1,500 Drinking Places In Boston City.

MINISTERS WERE RANSOMED

Taylor, Edwards and Hooper, Captured by Bushiri, Released.

SAMOAN COMMISSIONERS

Made a Social Call on Bismarck This Afternoon.

BOY CAPTURED A BURGLAR.

MUTINY ON A BRITISH BARK TO-DAY. Men Claimed That Vessel was Unseaworthy and Refused to Work.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—A mutiny occurred to-day, on the British bark J. Walter Scammel, now lying off Bedloe's Island. The bark was to sail to-day, with a cargo of lumber for Rio Janeiro. Five of the sailors refused to work, claiming the ship was unseaworthy and in a leaking condition. They also claim that the Captain had shipped five incompetent men. A fight took place and one man was knocked down. Mate Foster ran up a signal of distress and the police patrol went out to the vessel. The moment the officers clambered over the side of the bark peace was restored. The case was referred to the British Consul.

1,500 DRINKING PLACES MUST CLOSE.

Only One Sporting House in Boston Has Received a License.

By Telegram to The Freeman. BOSTON, April 27.—The new license law, which goes into effect May 1, limits the number of licensed places in the City to 750, and 1,500 drinking places must close by the date named. The list of rejected applications includes some of the most prominent dealers in the town except Councilman William Mahoney's, that has been granted a license. Among the noted sporting resorts that will have to close are those of ex-Osborne Thomas, Butler and Sculler George Hosmer, Michael Gleason, James Keenan and Edward McAvoy. There were three notable rejections among them. John Miller, who is reported to be the wealthiest Irish American in the City; Colonel Lawrence J. Logan, one of the leading Democratic politicians of the City; and Michael Doherty, who in life had a reputation of being a loud dealer in liquors and owned three stores. A number of small hotels are restricted to 3 per cent. beverages. The oldest ale house in the City, the "Bell in Hand," on Williams Court, must close. This hostelry has been established nearly a century and has been the resort of many notable men of past generations. A fair estimate of the loss to those who have been refused licenses in fixtures and income places the sum at not less than $50,000. About 3,500 bar-keepers will be thrown out of employment.

BOLD BURGLAR CAPTURED BY A BOY.

The Robber was Engaged in Plundering A Chicago Residence.

By Telegram to The Freeman. CHICAGO, April 27.—The thirteen-year-old son of J. C. Howard, Chief Clerk of the Washburn Railroad, wounded and captured a burglar here last night who had just plundered his father's residence. The Howard family have suffered two or three times from burglars and last evening Charles, being alone in the house, watched the burglar. Seeing his father's revolver he secreted himself near a window. After an hour's wait he saw two men climbing in with a bag. Charles waited until the bag had been filled with valuables, and the burglars were well outside. Then he pursued yelling, "Police." No police appeared and one man turned upon the boy menacingly, whereupon Charles opened fire. The fourth shot brought down one burglar with a shattered thigh bone. His companion got away. A primer weapon then dashed up, secured the bag of plunder, the wounded burglar and Charles. The youngster was held at the station house several hours until it was certain that the burglar's wound was not fatal.

MATE OF VESSEL NEARLY KILLED

By Three Men at Oswego, who are Supposed to be Union Sailors.

By Telegram to The Freeman. OSWEGO, April 27.—Last night three men, supposed to be Union sailors, went at midnight on board the schooner John Schenck of Toledo, which had a "scab" crew and attacked the Mate, Joseph Josephs, of Toledo, and beat him with belaying pins and clubs. They then took him ashore, pounded him to insensibility and threw him into a cellar of a burned house. He crawled out, more dead than alive, and got to a house near by. He identified Alexander Skillen, the President of the Lake Seaman's Association, who has been arrested as one of the assailants. Josephs may die. Skillen was committed without bail to await the result of Josephs' injuries. The crew had been driven from the vessel previous to the assault. Skillen claims an alibi.

DECISION BY TEXAS SUPREME COURT.

Conductor's Suit for Libel Against A Railroad Read Was Not Actionable.

By Telegram to The Freeman. AUSTIN, Tex., April 27.—The Supreme Court yesterday reversed the decision of the lower Court in the case of Richmond, a railroad conductor who sued the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company for damages for publishing him on the black list as a conductor discharged for carelessness. The Supreme Court holds that the case was not actionable for libel on account of the absence of express malice in the publication.

Missionaries Ransomed.

By Cable to The Freeman. ZANZIBAR, April 27.—The Rev. Messrs. Taylor, Edwards and Hooper, who were captured by Bushiri and held by him for a ransom of £1,000, have been released on the payment of the sum demanded and have arrived here.

Called Upon Prince Bismarck.

By Cable to The Freeman. BERLIN, April 27.—Messrs. Kasson, Phelps and Bates, the American delegates to the Samoan Conference, made a social call upon Prince Bismarck this afternoon.

[Other telegraph on page 3.]

$75,000. This sum wanted in a live established and paying manufacturing business. A trade already large to be extended, and Guano works enlarged. Address CALL BOX 89, KINGSTON, N. Y.

THINGS DOCTORS DO NOT KNOW.

Their Ignorance Illustrated in the Robinson Poisoning Cases.

There was a commotion among the doctors at a recent meeting of the Massachusetts Medical-Legal Society when it was found that reporters for secular newspapers were taking notes. Papers bearing especially on the notorious Robinson arsenical poisoning cases had been announced.

Dr. Holt declared that there was general ignorance of the symptoms of arsenical poisoning, and claimed that because of this ignorance the Robinson poisoning cases had gone on without arousing suspicions on the part of medical men. There were, he said, at least eight cases of criminal poisoning; seven occurred within five years, and in one family, and the other was that of a relative. The cases were all treated by physicians of large practice, prominent in the profession, and yet no suspicion of arsenical poisoning was aroused until an organization in which the victims were insured tried to determine by investigation why so many persons died suddenly in this family.

In support of his statement as to the ignorance of medical men of the symptoms of arsenical poisoning, the doctor remarked that certificates of death were given in five of the Robinson cases as follows: Pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, bowel disease and Bright's disease.

The startling disclosure of the stupid ignorance shown in the treatment of those cases is quite in keeping with the usual indiscretion manifested by the profession in the treatment of persons who are sufferers from the slow and subtle poison which is generated in the system from a diseased state of the kidneys. The afflicted are treated for consumption, apoplexy, for brain and various nervous disorders, when in most instances, it is shown, when too late, that the patient was wrongfully and ignorantly treated for a supposed disease, which was, in reality, but a symptom of kidney disease, and should have been timely treated as such by the use of Warner's Safe Cure, which is the only remedy known that can be successfully relied on in the treatment of such disease.

Such exhibitions of stupidity by those who profess great intelligence in such matters is calculated to destroy confidence, and it can well be said that a remedy like Warner's Safe Cure, which places the direct means of preserving health in the sufferer's hands, is far more meritorious than high-priced, medical advice, which is so generally worthless, and too often based upon an erroneous opinion as to the true cause of illness.

Human life is just a little too precious to the average individual to be sacrificed to the bigotry or ignorance of others.

SATURDAY, APRIL 27.

GOOD HEALTH.

Keep your feet warm and your head cool and you will secure it.

HOSIERY

for the feet and

PARASOLS

for the other extremity are our

Specialties for to-day. Gentlemen's seamless half hose, 3 pairs for 25 cents. Gentlemen's fine fancy half hose, 17 cents, usually 25 cents.

Printed on Second-class matter, at the Post Office, at
RONDOUT, N. Y.

Kingston Daily Freeman.

KINGSTON, N. Y., APRIL 27, 1899.

Weather Indications.
WASHINGTON, April 27.—Indications for Sunday: Rain, stationary temperature, northerly winds.

SUNDAY RAILROADING.

It is impossible to undertake any real reform without trenching on somebody's interests or selfishness. High license laws in New York because Gov. Hill has staked his political fortunes on the saloons. Ballot reform cannot be accomplished because the Democratic party was disappointed at the result of its "campaign of intellect" last year, and would like another opportunity to win by the old methods.

The Vanderbilts have undertaken to reduce the number of their Sunday trains in order to discourage Sunday travel and traffic and give their employees the day of rest that is conceded to be necessary in every other department of labor. The movement was hailed with surprise, for it was not supposed that a Vanderbilt could be induced to put high moral considerations ahead of business, and confess that there was enough soul in a great corporation to make a generous sacrifice in behalf of tired humanity. No Sabbath movement yet attempted promises to be more far-reaching and beneficial than this. It is worth a million sermons on Sabbath observance preached to church-goers "who need no repentance." It will soon be extended to all the great railway systems of the United States. And other interests will be affected favorably, for the barber shop, the meat market and the saloon will have their arguments in favor of keeping open doors weakened by the action of the Vanderbilt corporation. The announcement was welcomed so cordially and universally that everybody appeared to be pleased.

But in the New York Sun of this morning a gentleman who signs himself "Philip G. Peabody, 18 Litchfield Street, Boston," enters his protest. He has been a stockholder in the Central railroad for ten years, and has seen the stock drop from over 155 to about 83. He finds fault with a good many details of the management before he comes to the Sunday question. He attacks Mr. Vanderbilt on this point because the change is made, not for economical reasons, but "to help the cause of religion or his own social standing." To accomplish this he asserts that a heavy tax is being levied on the Central's stockholders, and that the employees are also to lose about 17 per cent of their incomes. He thinks "in case of loss resulting to the stockholders from it, those responsible can be held personally liable in accordance with well known legal principles."

We refer to Mr. Peabody's arguments, not to answer them, but to furnish an instance of the difficulties that stand in the way of every reform movement. Mr. Peabody lives in Massachusetts, where Sunday restriction is so thorough that many of the railroads do not move a wheel on that day, but he thinks there should be no Sunday restriction in New York. He feels outraged because of his fear that the value of his stock is to be affected, just as Gov. Hill feels outraged by the proposition for high license because his political stock in trade would be in danger of depreciation by a diminution of the number of saloons. And Mr. Peabody even looks for redress from the laws of New York, ignorant, evidently, of the fact that this state has laws for Sunday observance as well as Massachusetts, and that Mr. Vanderbilt becomes more of a law-abiding citizen by his action than he ever was before.

The effect will not be injurious to Mr. Peabody's stock or Mr. Vanderbilt's business. The New England roads pay as liberal dividends, as other roads, and are not patronized the less because of their better regard for the Sabbath. Merchants and shippers will soon adapt themselves to the changed conditions, while the railroads will enlarge their facilities so that the business of seven days can be done in six. An exception must be made for the safety of perishable freight, but this will be taken care of.

In spite of the loud demands for a "continental Sabbath," and the sneers at the bigotry of American puritanism, the Sabbath is gaining ground in the affections of the American people. While many may not observe it religiously, the conviction grows with the growing intelligence of the masses, that it is absolutely necessary as a day of rest. The Vanderbilts will be sustained because the sentiment of the people is on the side of the Sabbath.

BALLOT REFORM IN OKLAHOMA.

While the question of ballot reform is agitating many states, and various systems more or less complete are suggested, it is not worth while to overlook the method adopted at Guthrie City yesterday for the election of Mayor. There were 10,000 citizens to vote, and neither polling place nor ballot boxes had been prepared. A simpler and quicker method was soon agreed upon. There were three candidates to be voted for, Hoggett, Hill and Kelly, and three straight lines three feet apart were marked out, and the supporters of each candidate were told to take their places on one of the lines. A rushing mighty wind came and broke up the election before the result could be declared. But the same plan will be tried again to-day. When the men are all ranged in their respective lines, the length of each will be measured, and the successful candidate will be declared elected by a majority of a certain number of feet.

The opportunities for fraud are reduced to a minimum by this arrangement. As the men are placed in file, one before the other, the man with the large stomach would of course outvote his gaunt neighbor in the opposite line, but why should he not? He is a larger and more important citizen, covering more ground, consuming more food, wearing more clothing, and thus contributing more largely to the employment of labor, the activity of trade, and the taxes that maintain the government. It is the only method yet devised by which the citizen can cast a vote commensurate with his importance. The opportunity for fraud is afforded only by an artificial distention of the stomach, as actors sometimes put on garments much too large and stuff them with cotton or rags to give them the appearance of corpulence. But if a hot day is chosen for the election this is not likely to prove a popular method of cheating. One of the beneficial results will be a division of political forces on new lines. Politicians will be most eager to court the favor of the party of big stomachs and the party of long feet. Hence beer and leather will become the leading subjects for favorable legislation.

Of course bribery will be impossible, for the discipline of the line will be perfect. No man will be allowed to turn to the voter behind him and try to corrupt his vote, or to whisper temptation to the one in front. Neither will he be able to pass from man to man distributing greenbacks or standard dollars, for his own place will be in the line if he would not forfeit his vote. There is a great moral advantage in taking the entire ballot in a single moment. The bulldozer must be quick in his work, and the man of "influence" will be of little account. And so democratic is the plan that the fat bar-tender would count even more than the diminutive Jay Gould.

Gov. Hill probably regrets that this plan had not been devised before he drew the Lincoln bill. It is a departure from our old and ineffective methods so novel and so radical that a great many people would be attracted by it. Not the least among its merits is the fact that the voters, as soon as the result was announced, would be arranged for a triumphal procession. The vanquished could kindly be permitted to break ranks and go home.

A BIG DAYS WORK.

The Senate did a hard day's work for New York city yesterday by passing all the bills sent to it by the Assembly for the improvement of the municipal government. The bill to increase the number of Police Justices from eleven to fifteen was passed by a vote of 27 to 2. The bill to wipe out the present Park Commission and substitute for it a Commission of two members, one Democrat and the other a Republican, was passed 27 to 2. The bill to wipe out the present Police Commission and appoint two Commissioners, a Republican and a Democrat, was passed, 19 to 2. Then the rapid transit bill was passed, 19 to 1. The Commission bills will have the effect of putting the County Democracy entirely out of power in the city government, and is condemned by that faction as a deal between Tammany and the Republicans, by which the latter take the profits that formerly went to the "Counties." As there are but two County Democrats in the Senate the bills are quite sure to become laws, either by the Governor's approval or their passage over his veto.

PUBLIC OPINION.

The question is still unanswered why Democrats should resist an election bill which applies equally to all voters and which the Republican and the Labor parties are willing to accept.—New York World.

The Republican Senators were solid for the excise bill with the exception of Worth of Brooklyn. He deserted his party on an issue that has come to stay. So much the worse for Worth.—New York Press.

Pensioning veterans who need public aid is a cheaper mode of providing for them than allowing them to hold offices if they are not qualified, or cannot afford the best service obtainable.—Syracuse Standard.

District Attorney Fellows of New York has returned from another vacation. He does not propose to die of overwork, as Postmaster Peabody does, and he takes a long vacation between each case in court so as to be on the safe side.—Troy Press.

Chicago has a wonder in the shape of a man who has been arrested on the charge of bigamy. How a man living in Chicago, where divorces can be secured while you wait, should be so thoughtless as to permit himself to be arrested for having a plurality of wives is indeed something strange. Is it crazy or merely tempting fate?—St. Paul Pioneer Press.

After the Oklahoma lands shall be finally distributed, what will become of the surplus population? Disappointed, desperate, tough, and penniless, these men—and women, alas!—will overflow into all the region round about. Many may go back whence they came. But thousands will drift about the neighborhood of Oklahoma, a terror to civilization and a curse to the country.—Buffalo Express.

Eight years ago one William Rogers was sent to the Michigan penitentiary for a crime that is now known to have been committed by another, and the first had been "pardoned." During the intervening period his wife obtained a divorce and remarried, and his home was broken up. For eight years he was compelled to work for the state without wages. But he has legal rights. No prisoner is made in any state for justice in such cases, and the failure sometimes makes justice appear a farce.—Cleveland Leader.

There is a vacancy at Washington which the civil service commission finds it very difficult if not impossible to fill. This is the office of computer for the national almanac. A man is wanted who can compute all sorts of astronomical phenomena, and has the higher mathematics at his fingers' ends. He must be able also to live in Washington on $750, with a chance, if he is good and smart, of getting $900 eventually. The place goes begging. The feeling that mathematics is its own reward has never been sufficiently cultivated in the American young man's bosom.—Springfield Union.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

TO REGAIN YOUR HEALTH IF YOU ARE BROKEN DOWN AND SUFFERING FROM NERVOUS PROSTRATION I will tell you what cured me after suffering for months. I used two bottles of Sulphur Bitters, and now I am a well man.—C. Stiles, Bookkeeper, Canton.

PNEUMONIA, THE MOST DANGEROUS of all acute attacks, prevented by the use of the great Hoxsie preparations. The greatest remedies in the world, for Lung and Throat Troubles. 35 cts.

That tired, languid feeling and dull headache is very disagreeable. Take two of Carter's Little Liver Pills before retiring, and you will find relief. They never fail to do good.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS. Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for children's teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer, and you will be one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. For sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

"THE NAKED TRUTH." Whilst Truth was one day bathing in a limpid river, Falsehood happened to pass, and noticing the garments of Truth on the bank of the stream, conceived the idea of exchanging his clothing for that of the latter, who came from the bath and mourned the loss sustained, but, disdaining Falsehood's garb, has since gone naked through the world. Whether the origin of the expression "the naked truth" is mythical or otherwise, it is universally known to be the "naked truth" that Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is equal as a curative agent for consumption (lung scrofula), bronchitis, chronic catarrh, asthma, and kindred diseases of the throat and lungs.

SHILOH'S VITALIZER is what you need for Constipation, Loss of Appetite, Blisters and all symptoms of Dyspepsia. Price 10 and 75 cents per bottle. For sale by F. J. R. Clarke, Kingston.

THE NEW DISCOVERY. You have heard your friends and neighbors talking about it. You may yourself be one of the many who know from personal experience just how good a thing it is. You may have even heard of one of its staunch friends, because the wonderful thing about it, that when once given a trial, Dr. King's New Discovery ever after holds a place in the house. If you have never used it and should be afflicted with a cough, cold or any throat, Lung or Chest trouble, secure a bottle at once and give it a fair trial. It is guaranteed every time, or money refunded. For sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.

WHAT A THOUGHTFUL WIFE DID. She induced me to try Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, (made at Rondout, N. Y., you know), and after two weeks' trial I was completely cured of malaria, pneumonia, and all the other troubles and derangement of the whole system. I had previously tried all the other remedies without success. Thanks are due my wife and Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy.—Thomas G. Spencer, 164 Twelfth Street, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Price, $1. If your druggist has not got it send to me above address.

SPECIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.

LOWE. "I don't know where I can't tell me, and I don't see how—something of great value to me, and for the return of which I shall be truly thankful, viz: a good appetite."

FOOT.—"Health and strength, pure blood, an appetite like that of a good regular digestion, all by taking that popular and peculiar medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want everybody to try this season. It is sold by all druggists. One hundred doses one dollar."

FORCED TO LEAVE HOME.

Over 60 people were forced to leave their homes yesterday to call for a free trial package of Lane's Family Medicine. If your blood is bad, your liver and kidneys out of order, if you are constipated, and have headache and an unsightly complexion, don't fail to call on any druggist to-day for a free sample of this grand remedy. The ladies praise it. Every one likes it. Large size package 50 cents.

A NASAL INJECTOR free with each bottle of Shiloh's Catarrh Remedy. Price 30 cents. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clarke.

SHILOH'S CURE will immediately relieve Croup, Whooping Cough and Bronchitis. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clarke.

They make one feel as though life was worth living. Take one of Carter's Little Liver Pills after eating; it will relieve constipation, aid digestion, give tone and vigor to the system.

For nearly half a century Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been the most popular cough remedy in the world. The certainly increasing demand for this remedy proves it to be the very best specific for colds, coughs, and all diseases of the throat and lungs.

All kinds of people use the Hop Plasters because they cure quickly every pain and weakness.

MARRY YOUR SONS WHEN YOU WILL, YOUR DAUGHTERS WHEN YOU CAN. But in either case counsel them to use nothing but the Old Ointment for chapped hands and lips, sore nose, cold cracks and dryness, itchy skin. Never fails. All druggists, 25 and 50 cents, or mail sample to Hop Co., New-London, Conn.

ARE YOU MADE MISERABLE by Indigestion, Co? Stomach, Dizziness, Loss of Appetite, Yellow Skin, Shiloh's Vitalizer is a positive cure. Sold by Frederick J. R. Clarke.

Humors, Blotches, Sores, Scales, Crusts, and Loss of Hair Cured.

Terrible Blood Poison. Suffered all a man could suffer and Live. Face and Body Covered with Awful Sores. Used the Cuticura Remedies Ten Weeks and is Practically Cured. A Remarkable Case.

I contracted a terrible blood-poisoning a year ago. I doctored with two good physicians, neither of whom did me any good. I saw a man who suffered and live. Hearing of your Cuticura Remedies I concluded to try them, knowing if they did me no good, I would never be worse. I have been using them about ten weeks, and am most happy to say that I am almost rid of the awful sores that covered my face and body. My face was as bad, if not worse, than that of Miss Boynton, spoken of in your book, and I am now as good as cured, in the same condition, to use Cuticura, and they will surely be cured. You may use this letter in the interest of suffering humanity. E. W. Reynolds, Ashland, Ohio.

Covered with Running Sores 17 Years. I have been troubled with skin and scalp disease for seventeen years. My head at times was one running sore, and my body was covered with them as large as half dollars. I tried a great many remedies without effect until I used Cuticura Remedies, and am thankful to state that after two months of their use I am entirely cured. I feel it my duty to you and the public to state the above case. L. R. McIlwain, Haverhill, Mass.

Dug and Scratched 38 Years. I go Mr. Dennis Downing ten years before. I have dug and scratched for thirty-eight years. I had what is termed pruritis, and have suffered every thing, and tried a number of doctors, but got no relief. Anybody could have got $500 had they cured me. The Cuticura Remedies cured me. God bless the man who invented Cuticura! Chas. G. Goss, Cambridge, Mass.

Cuticura Remedies. Sold everywhere. Price, Cuticura, 50c.; Soap, 25c.; Resolvent, $1. Prepared by the POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, BOSTON.

Send for "How to Cure Skin Diseases," 64 pages, 50 illustrations, and 100 recipes. Is it a PIMPLE, black head, chapped and oily skin prevented by CUTICURA MEDICATED SOAP.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.

Relief Instantaneous, Cure Rapid, Radical and Permanent.

No single disease has entailed more suffering or hastened the breaking up of the constitution than catarrh. The sense of smell, of taste, of sight, of hearing, the human voice, one or more, and sometimes all, yield to its destructive influence. The poison it distributes throughout the system attacks every vital force, and injures the most robust of constitutions. Ignored, because by little understood, by most physicians, impotently assailed by quacks and charlatans, those suffering from it have little hope to be relieved. It is, then, that the popular treatment of this terrible disease by remedy within the reach of all, passed into the hands of one competent and trustworthy. The new method, adopted by Dr. Sanford in the preparation of his Radical Cure has won the hearty approval of thousands. It is instantaneous in its effect, and in all cases, it restores the sense of smell, and obstructed breathing, and rapidly removes the most oppressive symptoms, clearing the head, restoring the breath, restoring the sense of smell, and taste, and neutralizing the constitutional tendency of the disease towards the lungs, liver and kidneys.

Sanford's Radical Cure for Catarrh consists of one bottle of the Radical Cure, one box of Catarrh Solvent, and Improver. Each bottle, all in one package; price, $1. Ask for SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE. Sold everywhere.

ACHING SIDES AND BACK. Hip, kidney and uterine pains and weakness, relieved in ONE MINUTE by the CUTICURA ANTI-PAIN PILLS. The first and only instantaneous pain-killing, strengthening plaster.

Dr. C. McLANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS. WILL CURE—SICK HEADACHE.

A few doses taken at the right time will often save a severe spell of sickness. Price only 25 cents at any drug store. Be sure and see that Dr. C. McLANE'S LIVER PILLS are the first and only ones bearing FLEMING BROS., Pittsburgh, Pa., is on the box. None other is genuine.

Use Ivory Poli-h for the Teeth. PERFUMES THE BREATH.

Tutt's Pills. CURE Malaria, Dumb Chills, Fever and Ague, Wind Colic, Bilious Attacks.

They produce regular, natural evacuations, never gripe or interfere with daily business. As a family medicine, they should be in every household.

SOLD EVERYWHERE. MARVELOUS MEMORY DISCOVERY.

Only Genuine System of Memory Training. Four Books Learned. Mind Wandering cured. Every child and adult greatly benefited. Great inducements to Correspondence Classes.

Prospectus, with Specials in Dr. Wm. Hammond, the world-famous specialist in Mind Diseases, Daniel Greenleaf Thompson, Esq., Equal as a Curative Agent, Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, N. Y., Richard Proctor, the Scientist, Hous, W. W., Foster, London, England, and others.

Price, $1. If your druggist has not got it send to me above address.

PROF. A. LOISELLE, 337 Fifth-Ave., N. Y.

Only Genuine System of Memory Training. Four Books Learned. Mind Wandering cured. Every child and adult greatly benefited. Great inducements to Correspondence Classes.

Prospectus, with Specials in Dr. Wm. Hammond, the world-famous specialist in Mind Diseases, Daniel Greenleaf Thompson, Esq., Equal as a Curative Agent, Buckley, D. D., editor of the Christian Advocate, N. Y., Richard Proctor, the Scientist, Hous, W. W., Foster, London, England, and others.

Price, $1. If your druggist has not got it send to me above address.

PROF. A. LOISELLE, 337 Fifth-Ave., N. Y.

THE ONLY DIARIES

Brilliant, Durable, Economical

Are DIAMOND DYES. They excel all others in Strength, Purity and Fastness. None others are just as good. Beware of imitations—they are made of cheap and inferior materials and give poor, weak, croaky colors.

36 Colors, 10 Cts. Each

Send postal for Dye Book, Sample Card, directions for coloring Photos, making the finest Ink or Bluing (10 cts. a quart), etc. Sold by Druggists or by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

For Gilding or Bronzing Fancy Articles, USE DIAMOND PAINTS

Gold, Silver, Bronze, Copper. Only 10 Cents PAINE'S CELESTIAL COMPOUND. Cures NEURALGIA, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY DISEASES, AND ALL LIVER DISORDERS.

Proofs: "Paine's Celestial Compound cured my nervous sick headaches." Mrs. L. A. Buxton, San Jacinto, Cal.

"After using six bottles of Paine's Celestial Compound, I am cured of rheumatism." SAMUEL HITCHCOCK, South Cornish, N. H.

It has done me more good for kidney disease, than any other medicine. Geo. Abbott, Sioux City, Iowa.

Wells, Richardson & Co., Proprietors, BURLINGTON, VT.

Van Duesen Bros. Wholesale and Retail Druggists.

Kingston and Rondout. Always in Stock a Full Line of

RIKER'S Reliable and Justly Celebrated

Family Medicines, POCKET PREPARATIONS AND PERFUMES which we legally guarantee to give perfect satisfaction to our customers or we return their money.

VAN DEUSEN BROS. Wholesale and Retail Druggists,

Kingston and Rondout, Ulster County, N. Y.

NEW GOODS —OF THE— LATEST STYLES —OF THE—

Boots and Shoes, HATS AND CAPS, FINE GLOVES

Canes and Umbrellas, ARE ARRIVING DAILY

—OF THE— Spring and Early Summer Trade.

Inspection of same invited.

EDWARD T. STELLE, 54 Wall-St., Kingston.

GIRARD L. MENTEE, Fire Insurance,

Representing among others

North British and Mercantile Insurance Company

With assets of over $3,000,000

Hanover Fire Insurance Co., Of New York.

"OLD ATNA" OF HARTFORD,

With an honorable record in this town since 1852 during which time they have paid $200,000 for losses incurred in this City and vicinity besides many others, amounting which is $200,000, paid for Chicago's big fire before the smoke cleared away.

PHENIX OF HARTFORD, Who Has Been Here Since 1856.

EVERY FACILITY —FOR— Doing All Kinds of Insurance

—ESPECIALLY— Fire and Marine

In companies of the highest character whose policies I offer for sale giving to the assured full protection.

Girard L. McEntee

No. 4. UNION-AYENUE, RONDOUT, N. Y.

Telephone call 3.

SOMETHING NEW. "ALUMINUM."

The beautiful and rare metal now manufactured by a simple process in large quantities by the HARTFORD TRUSSING & BRASSING CO., NEWPORT, R. I. "ALUMINUM" is exceedingly cheaper and superior than silver or gold, and is made readily and cheaply now being adopted for all kinds of ornaments, fine jewelry and household utensils. It is very light, durable, non-tarnishing, melts readily and alloys with any metal. Why not investigate?

Pure Aluminum of Pure Aluminum in America. Only Manufacturers of Pure Aluminum in America. Pure Aluminum paper-weights, 2 inches square, one-half inch in thickness, weighing 1-6.8 ounces, sent by mail for $1.00.

PEERLESS DYES Are the Best Sold by druggist

THE ONLY DIARIES

Brilliant, Durable, Economical

Are DIAMOND DYES. They excel all others in Strength, Purity and Fastness. None others are just as good. Beware of imitations—they are made of cheap and inferior materials and give poor, weak, croaky colors.

36 Colors, 10 Cts. Each

Send postal for Dye Book, Sample Card, directions for coloring Photos, making the finest Ink or Bluing (10 cts. a quart), etc. Sold by Druggists or by Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington, Vt.

For Gilding or Bronzing Fancy Articles, USE DIAMOND PAINTS

Gold, Silver, Bronze, Copper. Only 10 Cents PAINE'S CELESTIAL COMPOUND. Cures NEURALGIA, NERVOUS PROSTRATION, RHEUMATISM, KIDNEY DISEASES, AND ALL LIVER DISORDERS.

Proofs: "Paine's Celestial Compound cured my nervous sick headaches." Mrs. L. A. Buxton, San Jacinto, Cal.

"After using six bottles of Paine's Celestial Compound, I am cured of rheumatism." SAMUEL HITCHCOCK, South Cornish, N. H.

It has done me more good for kidney disease, than any other medicine. Geo. Abbott, Sioux City, Iowa.

Wells, Richardson & Co., Proprietors, BURLINGTON, VT.

Van Duesen Bros. Wholesale and Retail Druggists.

Kingston and Rondout. Always in Stock a Full Line of

RIKER'S Reliable and Justly Celebrated

Family Medicines, POCKET PREPARATIONS AND PERFUMES which we legally guarantee to give perfect satisfaction to our customers or we return their money.

VAN DEUSEN BROS. Wholesale and Retail Druggists,

Kingston and Rondout, Ulster County, N. Y.

NEW GOODS —OF THE— LATEST STYLES —OF THE—

Boots and Shoes, HATS AND CAPS, FINE GLOVES

Canes and Umbrellas, ARE ARRIVING DAILY

—OF THE— Spring and Early Summer Trade.

Inspection of same invited.

EDWARD T. STELLE, 54 Wall-St., Kingston.

GIRARD L. MENTEE, Fire Insurance,

Representing among others

North British and Mercantile Insurance Company

With assets of over $3,000,000

Hanover Fire Insurance Co., Of New York.

"OLD ATNA" OF HARTFORD,

With an honorable record in this town since 1852 during which time they have paid $200,000 for losses incurred in this City and vicinity besides many others, amounting which is $200,000, paid for Chicago's big fire before the smoke cleared away.

PHENIX OF HARTFORD, Who Has Been Here Since 1856.

EVERY FACILITY —FOR— Doing All Kinds of Insurance

—ESPECIALLY— Fire and Marine

In companies of the highest character whose policies I offer for sale giving to the assured full protection.

Girard L. McEntee

No. 4. UNION-AYENUE, RONDOUT, N. Y.

Telephone call 3.

SOMETHING NEW. "ALUMINUM."

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

IMPORTANT PART THIS OLD COLONIAL CITY WILL TAKE IN IT.

The Steamboat Mary Powell and Steamer "City of Kingston" will be in Water Parade—Cornell House and Fourteenth Separate Companies.

That this old Colonial City is truly American, and has not forgotten the noble deeds of the historic chieftain who led his troops to a victory which forever settled the question whether this country should be free or forever subject to a foreign power, is manifested in the interest its citizens are evincing in the coming Washington Centennial Celebration in New York. Not alone will a very large number of its people visit the Metropolis to pay dutiful homage to the memory of the first President of the United States, but one of its finest fire organizations and its crack military company will take prominent part in the event, an example which no doubt will be emulated by a future generation a hundred years hence. Nor is this all. This city is proud—and justly so—of its number of large, fleet and well appointed steamboats that are owned here. Several of these boats will hold conspicuous places in the Merchant Marine Naval Parade, on Monday, the first day of the Celebration.

MERCHANT MARINE NAVAL PARADE.

The steamboat Mary Powell, which has been assigned a place next to the Vice-Admiral's flag ship, will leave here at an early hour on Monday morning for the Metropolis. The "Queen of the Hudson" will be brave with flags and will be commanded by Captain W. S. VanKeuren, who recognizes the special distinction and honor bestowed upon the Powell. On Tuesday the Powell will convey the West Point cadets to the Metropolis, where they will display a part of their governmental instruction in the grand military parade. Another central figure in the patriotic flotilla will be the steamer "City of Kingston," Captain W. S. VanKeuren, which will leave here on Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. Other boats owned by the Cornell Steamboat Company will also be found in line. The display of water craft will astonish the tens of thousands who will behold it. It will be the most magnificent moving panorama ever seen in this or any other country. It is expected that over 500 vessels of all descriptions will take part. An excellent opportunity will be afforded of witnessing this bewildering sight can be had from the decks of either the Powell or the "Kingston," as both these boats will pass within hailing distance of each vessel in line rounding the stony shore in the East and North Rivers. A favorable opportunity will also be given of seeing President Harrison and his Cabinet, who will be on the revenue cutter Dispatch. The procession will start from a point south of the statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World" and move up East River as far as Williamsburg, when it will "round to" and proceed down and past the Battery and Castle Garden, affording an excellent view of the lower part of the Metropolis, which will be profusely decorated with flags and bunting. After passing these points the procession will sail a few miles up the North River, where a splendid view of the outlines of some of New York's most notable buildings can be obtained. After the parade has been dismissed the "Kingston" will return to Rondout, reaching here in ample time to make its customary Monday night trip, only taking its departure from its wharf a little later than its usual hour.

THE MILITARY PARADE.

On Tuesday the "Kingston" will remain in New York until 6 o'clock p. m. in order to give its patrons from this city and other points along the Hudson a chance to view the brilliant military pageant and other interesting sights commemorative of the auspicious occasion. The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company will be in the parade, and there is not the slightest doubt but that they will acquit themselves in a manner that will not only reflect credit upon the organization, but will place them still higher in the estimation of their friends and attract favorable attention and commendation from strangers. The Company will be commanded by Captain John G. VanEtten.

THE CIVIC PARADE.

On Tuesday night Cornell Hose Company, Archibald Winter, Foreman, headed by the Twenty-Fifth Regiment Band, of Poughkeepsie, will leave here on the steamboat James W. Baldwin. They will take with them their handsome carriage and hose service cart. They will take part in the civic parade, which will culminate in the parade of the "Four Hundred" on the last day of the Centennial. On arriving in New York the Cornellists will be received by the Veteran Firemen's Association, of that City, whose guests they will be during their stay.

WILL ENACT IMPORTANT PART.

Thus it will be seen that this City will enact a most important part in honoring the memory of the Father of His Country.

SOME MINOR NOTES.

The famous Chicago Zouaves will pass through this City on Monday on their way to the New York Centennial Celebration. "Are you one of the 'Four Hundred'?" asked one Rondout citizen of another, to-day. "No," was the reply, "but I am one of the million who is going to attend the Centennial."

Captain L. Luckenbach, formerly of Rondout, will be Commodore of the Eighth Squadron in the Second Division of the Merchant Marine Naval Parade in the Bay of New York, on Monday.

It is surprising that no native of Delaware has thus far boasted that he has a piece of ice in his possession that was taken from the Delaware River by his grandfather the day after Washington made his memorable trip across that stream.

"Mamma," said a Rondout boy, "I know what kind of cherry tree George Washington cut down with his little hatchet." "What kind my dear?" "A puckering cherry tree."

"How do you know this?" "Because George's father didn't sour on him."

"Are you a Centennarian?" said a Rondout man to an old, gray-headed resident. "Was I sent on an errand?" replied the eager man, whose hearing is a little impaired.

"No, do you talk for me?" "The questioner did not seek further for information. He saw that the old man was not to be trifled with."

When the members of Cornell Hose Company return from New York City on Wednesday night from the Centennial they will be given a cordial welcome. They will be received by several fire companies here. The Pythian Band has been engaged by Rapid Hose and other companies are making arrangements for the proposed reception.

Minor Notes Around Town.

On page 5 can be found three columns of interesting matter.

Parasols sold in this City this spring give ample evidence of the mechanical ingenuity of the present age.

Strawberries are offered for sale in Rondout markets for 32 cents per quart. They are "grown" in Virginia.

Accident. A woman named Mrs. William Ward, residing on Murray-street, Rondout, fell and struck against a cistern box yesterday, and broke a rib on her right side. Dr. A. J. hot Keefe reduced the fracture.

It Kills the Fishermen. Owing to the roilly condition of the water in the Hudson River for the past two days, sad fishermen have met with little success.

Promised for Sunday: Rain, stationary temperature, north-easterly winds.

IN AND OUT OF THE PORT OF RONDOUT.

Arrivals at Tidewater—Reported for Cargoes of Coal—Tugs, Etc.

Yesterday the tug Conqueror was aground with six loaded ice barges on the flats near German town.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 30 Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, laden with 3,900 tons of coal.

The whistle of the steamboat James W. Baldwin was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10:19 o'clock.

The following craft were reported at the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company to-day for cargoes of coal: Schooner Helen Thompson, 170 tons; barges General Taylor, 250; P. R. Washburn, 100; N. E. T. Company, No. 17, 290; N. E. T. Company, No. 4, 400.

When the propellers J. H. Cordis and J. C. Hart left New York last night the following craft were reported in their tow: Ice barge Schooner, to Glasco; barges Lizzie, Tootle, E. Penn, to Rondout; box No. 55, to Rondout; schooners Ella Francis, to Athens; Flora Condon, to Eddyville; Charles E. Sears, to Newburgh; Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, to Rondout.

WILL OF LATE CAPTAIN SCHOONMAKER.

All the Deceased's Estate, Both Real and Personal, Left to Widow.

The will of the late Captain Cornelius Marius Schoonmaker, U. S. N., who was drowned during the tornado at Samoa, has been proved and admitted to probate in Ulster Surrogate's Court, Kingston. The will was made in 1879, when Mr. Schoonmaker was a Commander in the Navy. The witnesses to the will were Hon. M. Schoonmaker and Emma M. Cooper, of this City. The following is a copy of the will:

Know all men by these presents that I, Cornelius Marius Schoonmaker, residing in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, Commander in the United States Navy, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say: I give, devise and bequeath all my estate, both real and personal of every kind and nature, to have and to hold unto the heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Malinda M. Schoonmaker, sole executrix of this my last will and testament, and revoke all former and other wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and this fifteenth day of September, in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy Nine. C. M. Schoonmaker.

FAMILY WHO ARE SORELY AFFLICTED.

One Son in Hospital and Another Son Dies of Injuries.

The family of General D. T. VanBuren, formerly of Kingston, now of Plainfield, New Jersey, have had a severe affliction. Their son Edward, while in New York last Friday, was injured by a Broadway car. He was taken to Chamber Street Hospital. The General and Mrs. VanBuren were at the hospital attending him, when they received a telegram that another son, Frank VanBuren, while riding horseback at Plainfield, was thrown and that he was fatally injured. The young man died at Plainfield. He was 21 years of age. The funeral will take place at Grace Church, Plainfield, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Edward, who is still in the hospital, is reported better.

FILED REPORT WITH CITY CLERK.

Amount of Awards Made in the Warren Street Matter.

The Commissioners in the matter of the opening of Warren street, Kingston, have filed their report with City Clerk Augustus Schepmoes. The awards made are as follows: To Alice W. Scott, James Scott, Amelia Scott, Agnes M. Vaux and Catherine Harris, $1,100; to James Scott $100, for land taken. The following are the assessments decided upon: On Robert C. Hubbard, $250; Agnes M. Vaux, $100; William Darling, $50; Alice and James Scott, $400; James Scott, 100, and the City at large, $490.

MAN'S DEAD BODY FOUND IN WOODS.

Bottle of Prussic Acid Found Near by, Told Story of Suicide.

A dispatch from Middletown, N. Y., to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: The body of David V. Fogg, a bartender, of Bangor, Me., who disappeared from here March 5, has been found in the woods south of this City. A bottle of prussic acid was found near by, and told the story of suicide. Fogg had been employed in New York, Boston and Washington.

RAVAGES OF FIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Woods Have Been Laid Bare and Much Property Destroyed.

A dispatch from Middletown to THE FREEMAN, to-day, stated: A heavy rain has put out the forest fires on Shawangunk Mountains, in Sullivan County, but not before the woods have been laid bare. Hundreds of cords of wood and the cascades of hoop poles have been destroyed. The house of Gabriel Allen at Phillipsport and the barn of Jacob Budd have been burned.

Society Matters.

Last evening the members of the Rondout Quartette Club repaired to the residence of their Director, Professor J. W. Carl, and tendered him a serenade.

The Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, were inspected in Pythian Temple, in Kingston, last night. Assistant Inspector Magill, who was expected, was unable to be present. This Division is commanded by Mayor Charles V. Hester. Kingston, a member of the brigade staff. Major Hester said the Division was in excellent order.

The Welcome Rain.

The rain of yesterday and to-day was welcomed by farmers and local gardeners. Fields had become dry and spring crops were threatened with a drought. Cisterns here had become empty, and housewives feared the supply of water for "washing" would be exhausted. To-day fields and gardens bore evidence of renewed vigor.

Base Ball.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League: At Pittsburgh—Chicago 7, Pittsburg 1. At Indianapolis—Indianapolis 14, Cleveland 8. American Association: At St. Louis—St. Louis 8, Cincinnati 2. Other games in both the National League and American Association were prevented by rain.

Recorder's Court.

On complaint of one John Sullivan a young man named James Wilson was arraigned in Recorder's Court this forenoon, charged with assault. Wilson said he did not intend to inflict bodily harm, and that he struck Sullivan with a board "in fun." He was fined $5.

Building a New Dock.

The new dock being built for the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company on "the flats" opposite Ponckhookie, will be 500 feet in length. Many piles have already been driven. Difficulty has been experienced in dredging the Rondout Creek at that point, as the bottom is of hard clay.

Funeral To-day.

Mrs. Rebecca Hammond, formerly of this City, died in New York on Wednesday night. Her remains were brought to Rondout last night, on the steamboat James W. Baldwin. Funeral services will be held in St. Mary's Church this forenoon. She leaves four children.

Sang at Musicals.

At a musicale given at Eastman College, Poughkeepsie, this forenoon, Miss Georgiana Hayman, the soprano soloist at the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, Rondout, sang "Of Thee I Am Thinking" and "An Old Garden."

People Who are Ill.

Stephen Schoonmaker, an old Hudson River Captain, is seriously ill at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Baisden, Eddyville.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.

News Gleaned in the Religious Field in this City and Vicinity.

On Tuesday, in the Synagogue of the Congregation Emanuel, Rondout, services in keeping with the celebration of Washington as first President of the United States, will be held. The Rabbi, the Rev. D. Wolff, will preach a sermon in English.

A service authorized for use in the Diocese of New York State by Bishop H. C. Potter will be held in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout, on Tuesday, April 30. It is in the form of a thanksgiving service and relates to General George Washington.

The members of the congregation of the Rosendale Reformed Church will hold an entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 3 and 4, for the benefit of the Sunday School connected with that Church. A musical and literary programme will be rendered.

SERVICES TO-MORROW.

The usual services will be held in the various Catholic churches.

The usual Sunday services will be held in the Livingston-Street Lutheran Church.

In the Spring-Street Lutheran Church, the Rev. A. Schmidt will preach morning and evening.

Professor B. F. Ferry, of Madison University, will preach in the Wurts-Street Baptist Church morning and evening.

The Rev. W. A. Shaw will preach in the Church of the Comforter at 3 o'clock p. m. Young People's prayer meeting at 7:15 p. m.

The Rev. S. D. Noyes will preach morning and evening in the Fair-Street Reformed Church. Evening topic: "Voices from Washington's Inauguration."

The Rev. Dr. J. G. VanVelsigh will preach morning and evening in the First Reformed Church. Evening subject: "One Hundred Years of Providence in American History."

The Rev. J. W. Ackerly will preach morning and evening in the Ebenezer Reformed Church. Evening topic: "Our Country, Past and Present." Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. will be led by J. Van Aken.

The Rev. J. L. Davis will preach morning and evening in the Albany-Avenue Baptist Church. This will be the last Sunday of Dr. Davis as Pastor of the Church. The Young People's meeting will be held at 6:45 o'clock p. m.

The order of service at St. John's Episcopal Church, Kingston, will be: Holy Communion 7:30 a. m.; morning service, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday School, 3 p. m.; vespers, 7:30 p. m.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the Zion Church, on the Rev. W. A. Shaw's invitation, to be held here before. Among the selections is an "Old German Shepherd's Song" by Kienze.

This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Robinson Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like a Tyrolean yodel, it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Caldwell, entitled "Little and Large." This is a very clever and original composition. Then a beautiful part-song, by Pinsuti, "We'll Gaily Sing and Play," introducing "The Last Rose of Summer," as a solo for soprano and tenor alternately, is exceptionally bright and pleasing. Miss Sopha (Hall), the talented contralto, who gave so much pleasure at the initial concert of the Society, last summer, has been engaged for this concert. She has just returned from an arduous tour in New York, and has been very successful. Her repertoire is a highly original and interesting one. Further details of the concert and programme will be given next week. It will be the closing entertainment for the season of the New-York Tribune Society. Hearings will be suspended until autumn probably.

The Rev. J. F. Williams will preach morning and evening in the Ebenezer Reformed Church. Evening subject: "How May We Know That We Are Christians?" A consociation meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, at 6:45 p. m., will be held by the Pastor.

The Rev. Oscar Haviland will preach morning and evening in the Ebenezer Reformed Church. Evening subject: "The Christian in Two Worlds." Evening: "God in National History." Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. will be led by Miss Krump. Subject, "Woman's Name Greatest Honor."

The Rev. Thomas Lamont will preach in the Wurts-Street M. E. Church in the morning. In the evening an address on "Woman's Work Among Women" will be made by Miss J. Gibson, of Albany, a returned missionary from India. The Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 p. m. will be led by Miss Idella Hyde. Topic: "The Living Christian."

SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS.

One year ago to-day the Rev. John J. Duffy, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Rondout, died. In honor of his memory a Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's this forenoon. The Rev. P. J. Prendergast was the chief celebrant, assisted by the Rev. P. Morris. Among the clergymen present were the following: The Rev. Messrs. William McGill, of New York City; W. Conroy, of St. Patrick's, New York; W. B. J. Boddy, of Wilbur, N. Y.; and J. J. Schwin, of St. Peter's, Rondout; Joseph Hoey, of Milton. There was a large attendance at the mass. The services were impressive.

GOOD FOR NEXT WEEK.

During a fair held last winter by the Church of the Presentation, Port-Ewen, a handsome cutter was awarded the Rev. Joseph Hoey, of Milton, Ulster County, formerly of this City. This forenoon about 50 members of the Port-Ewen Church went to Hilton on board the steam canal boat Rogers, Captain Quigley, with the cutter, to present it to Mr. Hoey. The Rev. Philip Ahearne, Pastor of the Church of the Presentation, accompanied the party.

Y. M. C. A. WORK.

On June 12 a meeting of the General Secretaries of the Second District of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in this City.

The prayer service at the rooms of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, will be conducted by Jesse Deyo.

HUDSON RIVER RIPPLES BY MAIL, ETC.

News on the East and West Banks of the Hudson.

Worms are beginning to destroy fruit trees along the Hudson River.

William Smith and wife, of Poughkeepsie, have returned from their trip to Florida.

A 300-pound sturgeon was caught in the Hudson River, at Troy, on Thursday evening.

A dead baby was found in a pool of water near the Winnikee Ball Grounds, Poughkeepsie, on Friday.

The annual appropriation bill adds $60,000 for the maintenance of the House of Refuge for Women in Hudson.

Six hundred and fifty tons of coal were unloaded at W. B. Dinmore's dock at Staatsburgh one day this week for that gentleman's own use.

A John Orlando, for throwing dynamite in a little creek at Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, to destroy fish, was sentenced to spend 40 days in jail or pay $40.

What was Said. Recently, during a meeting in Kingston, a speaker had occasion to refer to slavery. He said, among other things, "I want to speak to you in favor of an institution that has been greatly spoken against. I want to speak to you of slavery and to say that it has some advantages. I believe that Satan is of advantage to a good many of us." Another speaker followed, who said: "For my part I always thought slavery was something like the measles and chicken-pox—the only good thing about it was that it got rid of it. Thank God we have got rid of it."

Children and Wild Flowers. (From the New Palitz Independent.)

The hearts of the little children have been happy in searching and finding wild flowers of late. There are liverworts, meadow pinks, anemones and yellow lilies or adders tongues. The wild violets are not here yet, but the sweet-scented, cultivated kind are in bloom. Trailing arbutus is in bloom likewise, but we are not sure there is any growing in the vicinity of New-Paltz.

Amusement Note.

Last night, in Kingston Opera House, the three-act comedy "Mossie" was rendered by Waite's Comedy Company to an appreciative audience. This afternoon at the matinee performance the play was "Kathleen Mavourneen." To-night "The Hidden Hand" will be the attraction. On Sunday evening a sacred concert is announced with a special programme.

Good Enough to Live In.

(From the Coxackie News.) Coxackie is good enough to live in, because out West they force the bank officers with pistols to surrender the stockholders' money. Well, how was it in Coxackie? The cashier took about $90,000 and asked no questions. He didn't even as much say "Hold up your hands!"

The "Fiddler" Gave Out.

A correspondent of the Hunter Phoebe writes: "The party at James Redmond's, Tannersville, on Tuesday evening of last week, was a very enjoyable affair. If the fiddler had been willing, and his arm had been strong, I think the jig would have lasted 40 hours long."

Around About Ulster County.

A gray horse of A. V. N. Eiting, of New-Paltz, aged 34 years, died one day recently. It is claimed the chimney of a school house in the town of Shawangunk was built by a cross-eyed mason.

Rhinecliff.

Mrs. Richard H. Randolph is ill. The interior of the Post Office is being improved by the new Postmaster.

The wall east of the station has been repaired and it now presents a neat appearance.

Industrial.

Work has been begun on the New-Paltz brickyard.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.

THE COMING CONCERT PROMISES TO BE A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

The Programme Will be Made Up of Music Such as Everybody Can Enjoy—Some of the Selections—Artists Who Will Take Part.

The benefit concert of the Kingston Philharmonic Society on May 8 in the Academy of Music, this City, promises to be a most successful and enjoyable affair. From the advance sales of tickets, even at this early date, it would seem that everybody is going to attend; and there is a growing suspicion that this enterprising and worthy Society is to be surprised and complimented with an enthusiastic and substantial benefit which will only be limited by the capacity of the hall, and which the industrious singers so well deserve. Very little noise has been made about this concert. So far the singers have been rehearsing quietly at their room in the City Hall, under the careful direction of their Conductor, Professor George F. Hulslander. The chorus will not be heard in the previous concerts, but it will embrace nearly all the audience is likely to be surprised at the efficiency shown. The programme will be made up almost entirely of the lighter class of music, such as everybody always enjoys and appreciates, whether versed in musical science or not. The selections are bright and joyous, being entirely adapted to the early May day resonant gladness and rejoicing of nature at this delightful season. The concert will also be unique in the fact that it will present an evening of part songs and glees by a well drilled chorus, supplemented by solo numbers of a like nature.

Such a programme has never before been here before. Among the selections is an "Old German Shepherd's Song" by Kienze. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Robinson Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like a Tyrolean yodel, it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Caldwell, entitled "Little and Large." This is a very clever and original composition. Then a beautiful part-song, by Pinsuti, "We'll Gaily Sing and Play," introducing "The Last Rose of Summer," as a solo for soprano and tenor alternately, is exceptionally bright and pleasing. Miss Sopha (Hall), the talented contralto, who gave so much pleasure at the initial concert of the Society, last summer, has been engaged for this concert. She has just returned from an arduous tour in New York, and has been very successful. Her repertoire is a highly original and interesting one. Further details of the concert and programme will be given next week. It will be the closing entertainment for the season of the New-York Tribune Society. Hearings will be suspended until autumn probably.

The Rev. J. F. Williams will preach morning and evening in the Ebenezer Reformed Church. Evening subject: "How May We Know That We Are Christians?" A consociation meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, at 6:45 p. m., will be held by the Pastor.

The Rev. Oscar Haviland will preach morning and evening in the Ebenezer Reformed Church. Evening subject: "The Christian in Two Worlds." Evening: "God in National History." Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. will be led by Miss Krump. Subject, "Woman's Name Greatest Honor."

The Rev. Thomas Lamont will preach in the Wurts-Street M. E. Church in the morning. In the evening an address on "Woman's Work Among Women" will be made by Miss J. Gibson, of Albany, a returned missionary from India. The Christian Endeavor meeting at 6:45 p. m. will be led by Miss Idella Hyde. Topic: "The Living Christian."

One year ago to-day the Rev. John J. Duffy, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Rondout, died. In honor of his memory a Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's this forenoon. The Rev. P. J. Prendergast was the chief celebrant, assisted by the Rev. P. Morris. Among the clergymen present were the following: The Rev. Messrs. William McGill, of New York City; W. Conroy, of St. Patrick's, New York; W. B. J. Boddy, of Wilbur, N. Y.; and J. J. Schwin, of St. Peter's, Rondout; Joseph Hoey, of Milton. There was a large attendance at the mass. The services were impressive.

During a fair held last winter by the Church of the Presentation, Port-Ewen, a handsome cutter was awarded the Rev. Joseph Hoey, of Milton, Ulster County, formerly of this City. This forenoon about 50 members of the Port-Ewen Church went to Hilton on board the steam canal boat Rogers, Captain Quigley, with the cutter, to present it to Mr. Hoey. The Rev. Philip Ahearne, Pastor of the Church of the Presentation, accompanied the party.

The annual appropriation bill adds $60,000 for the maintenance of the House of Refuge for Women in Hudson.

Six hundred and fifty tons of coal were unloaded at W. B. Dinmore's dock at Staatsburgh one day this week for that gentleman's own use.

A John Orlando, for throwing dynamite in a little creek at Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, to destroy fish, was sentenced to spend 40 days in jail or pay $40.

What was Said. Recently, during a meeting in Kingston, a speaker had occasion to refer to slavery. He said, among other things, "I want to speak to you in favor of an institution that has been greatly spoken against. I want to speak to you of slavery and to say that it has some advantages. I believe that Satan is of advantage to a good many of us." Another speaker followed, who said: "For my part I always thought slavery was something like the measles and chicken-pox—the only good thing about it was that it got rid of it. Thank God we have got rid of it."

Children and Wild Flowers. (From the New Palitz Independent.)

The hearts of the little children have been happy in searching and finding wild flowers of late. There are liverworts, meadow pinks, anemones and yellow lilies or adders tongues. The wild violets are not here yet, but the sweet-scented, cultivated kind are in bloom. Trailing arbutus is in bloom likewise, but we are not sure there is any growing in the vicinity of New-Paltz.

Amusement Note. Last night, in Kingston Opera House, the three-act comedy "Mossie" was rendered by Waite's Comedy Company to an appreciative audience. This afternoon at the matinee performance the play was "Kathleen Mavourneen." To-night "The Hidden Hand" will be the attraction. On Sunday evening a sacred concert is announced with a special programme.

Good Enough to Live In. (From the Coxackie News.) Coxackie is good enough to live in, because out West they force the bank officers with pistols to surrender the stockholders' money. Well, how was it in Coxackie? The cashier took about $90,000 and asked no questions. He didn't even as much say "Hold up your hands!"

The "Fiddler" Gave Out. A correspondent of the Hunter Phoebe writes: "The party at James Redmond's, Tannersville, on Tuesday evening of last week, was a very enjoyable affair. If the fiddler had been willing, and his arm had been strong, I think the jig would have lasted 40 hours long."

Around About Ulster County. A gray horse of A. V. N. Eiting, of New-Paltz, aged 34 years, died one day recently. It is claimed the chimney of a school house in the town of Shawangunk was built by a cross-eyed mason.

Rhinecliff. Mrs. Richard H. Randolph is ill. The interior of the Post Office is being improved by the new Postmaster.

The wall east of the station has been repaired and it now presents a neat appearance.

Industrial.

Work has been begun on the New-Paltz brickyard.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

HERBERT CARL

has recently purchased the Bankrupt Stock of A. B. Krum, at

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

IMPORTANT PART THIS OLD COLONIAL CITY WILL TAKE IN IT.

The Steamboat Mary Powell and Steamer "City of Kingston" will be Water Parade. Cornell House and Fourteenth Separate Companies.

That this old Colonial City is truly American, and has not forgotten the noble deeds of the historic chief who led his troops to a victory which forever settled the question whether this country should be free or forever subject to a foreign power, is manifested in the interest its citizens are evincing in the coming Washington Centennial Celebration in New York. Not alone will a very large number of its people visit the Metropolis to pay dutiful homage to the memory of the first President of the United States, but one of its finest fire organizations and its crack military company will take prominent part in the event, an example which no doubt will be emulated by a future generation a hundred years hence. Nor is this all. This City is proud—and justly so—of its number of large, fleet and well appointed steamboats that are owned here. Several of these boats will hold conspicuous places in the Merchant Marine Naval Parade, on Monday, the first day of the Celebration.

MERCHANT MARINE NAVAL PARADE.
The Steamboat Mary Powell, which has been assigned a place next to the Vice-Admiral's flag ship, will leave here at an early hour on Monday. On Tuesday the Powell will convey the West Point cadets to the Metropolis, where they will display a part of their governmental instruction in the grand military parade. Another central figure in the patriotic flotilla will be the steamer "City of Kingston," Captain W. S. VanKeuren, which will leave here on Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. Other boats owned by the Cornell Steamboat Company will also be found in line. The display of water craft will astound the tens of thousands who will be held in it. It will be the most magnificent moving panorama ever seen in this or any other country. It is expected that over 300 vessels of all descriptions will take part. An excellent opportunity of witnessing this bewildering sight can be had from either the decks of either the Powell or the "City of Kingston," as both these boats will pass within hailing distance of each vessel in line when rounding the stake boats in the East and North Rivers. A favorable opportunity will also be given of seeing President Harrison and his Cabinet, who will be on the revenue cutter Dispatch. The procession will start from a point south of the statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World," and move up East River as far as Williamsburg, when it will "round to" and proceed down and past the Battery and Castle Garden, affording an excellent view of the lower part of the Metropolis, which will be unusually decorated, as well as the harbor and rivers. After passing these points the procession will sail a few miles up the North River, where a splendid view will be had of some of New York's most notable buildings can be obtained. After the parade has been dismissed the "City of Kingston" will return to Rondout, reaching here in ample time to make its customary Monday night trip, only taking its departure from its wharf a little later than its usual hour.

THE MILITARY PARADE.
On Tuesday the "City of Kingston" will remain in New York until 6 o'clock p. m. in order to give its patriotic crew of soldiers and sailors a chance to view the brilliant military pageant and other interesting sights commemorative of the auspicious occasion. The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company will be in the parade, and they will not be the slightest doubt but that they will acquit themselves in a manner that will not only reflect credit upon the organization, but will place them still higher in the estimation of their friends and attract favorable attention and comment from strangers. The Company will be commanded by Captain John G. VanEtten.

THIS CIVIL PARADE.
On Tuesday night Cornell Hose Company, Archibald Winter, Foreman, headed by the Twenty-First Regiment Band, of Poughkeepsie, will leave here on the steamboat James W. Baldwin. They will take with them a handsome carriage and horse service cart. They will take part in the parade, which will eclipse anything of a like nature ever before attempted in the busy Metropolis. This event will be the highlight of the Centennial. On arriving in New York the Cornells will be received by the Veteran Firemen's Association, of that City, whose guests they will be during their stay.

WILL EXACT IMPORTANT PART.
Thus it will be seen that this City will enact a most important part in the parade, and the memory of the Father of His Country.

SOME MINOR NOTES.
The famous Clifton Gouaves will pass through this City on Monday on their way to the New York Centennial Celebration. "Are you one of the 'Four Hundred'?" asked one Rondout citizen of another, to-day. "No," was the reply, "but I am one of the million who is going to attend the Centennial."

Captain L. Luckenbach, formerly of Rondout, will be Commodore of the Eighth Squadron in the Second Division in the Merchant Marine Naval Parade in the Bay of New York, on Monday.

It is surprising that no native of Delaware has thus far boasted that he has a piece of ice in his possession that was taken from the Delaware River by his grandfather the day after Washington's death. His memorial trip across that stream.

Mamma, said a Rondout boy, "I know what kind of cherry tree George Washington cut down with his little hatchet."
"A puckerin' cherry tree."
"How do you know this?"
"Because George's father didn't sour on him."

"Are you a Centennarian?" said a Rondout man to an old, gray-headed testing it.
"Was I sent on an errand?" replied the eager man, whose hearing is a little impaired.
"No; do you take me for a boy?"
The questioner did not seek further for information. He saw that the old man was not to be trifled with.

When the members of Cornell Hose Company return from New York City on Wednesday night from the Centennial they will be given a cordial welcome. They will be received by several fire companies here. The Pythian Band has been engaged by Rapid Hose and other companies are making arrangements for the proposed reception.

Minor Notes Around Town.
On page 3 can be found three columns of interesting matter.

Parasols sold in this City this spring give ample evidence of the mechanical ingenuity of the present age.

Strawberries are offered for sale in Rondout markets for 32 cents per quart. They are "grown" in Virginia.

Accident.
A woman named Mrs. William Ward, residing on Murray-street, Rondout, fell and struck against a cistern box yesterday, and thereby broke a rib on her right side. Dr. A. J. Keefe reduced the fracture.

It Roils the Fishermen.
Owing to the roilly condition of the water in the Hudson River for the past two days, shad fishermen have met with but little success.

Promised for Sunday:
Rain, stationary temperature, north-easterly winds.

IN AND OUT OF THE PORT OF RONDOUT

Arrivals at Tidewater—Reported for Cargoes of Coal—Tugs, Etc.

Yesterday the tug Conqueror was aground with six loaded ice barges on the flats near German town.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, Henry to Eddyville, and Hudson Canal boats, laden with 3,900 tons of coal.

The whistle of the steamboat James W. Baldwin was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10:19 o'clock.

The following craft were reported at the Rondout Department of the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company to-day for cargoes of coal: Schooner Helen Thompson, 170 tons; barges General Taylor, 250; P. R. Washburn, 100; N. E. T. Company, No. 17, 200; N. E. T. Company, No. 4, 40.

When the propellers J. H. Cordis and J. C. Hart left New York last night the following craft were reported in their tow: Ice barge Simpson, to Glasgow; barges Lizzie, Food, Henry, to Eddyville; box No. 55, to Rondout; schooners Ella Francis, to Athens; Flora Condon, to Eddyville; Charles E. Sears, to Newburgh; Delaware & Hudson Canal boats, to Rondout.

WILL OF LATE CAPTAIN SCHOONMAKER.
All the Deceased's Estate, Both Real and Personal, Left to Widow.

The will of the late Captain Cornelius Marius Schoonmaker, U. S. N., who was drowned during the tornado at Samoa, has been proved and admitted to probate in the Surrogate's Court, Kingston. The will was made in 1879, when Mr. Schoonmaker was a Commander in the Navy. The witnesses to the will were Hon. M. Schoonmaker, Commander in the United States Navy, to make, publish and attest this will, which was made in manner and form following, that is to say: I, give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Matilda R. Schoonmaker, all and singular my estate, both real and personal of every kind and nature, to have and to hold the same to her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever. And I do hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Matilda R. Schoonmaker, sole executrix of this my last will and testament, and revoke all former and other wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this fifteenth day of September, in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-Nine.

FAMILY WHO ARE SORELY AFFLICTED.
One Son in Hospital and Another Son Dies of Injuries.

The family of General D. T. VanBuren, formerly of Kingston, now of Plainfield, New Jersey, have had a severe affliction. Their son Edward, while in New York last Friday, was injured by a Broadway car. He was taken to Chamber Street Hospital. The General and Mrs. VanBuren were at the funeral of their son, which took place at Grace Church, Plainfield, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Edward, who is still in the hospital, is reported better.

FILED REPORT WITH CITY CLERK.
Amount of Awards Made in the Warren-Street Matter.

The Commissioners in the matter of the opening of Warren street, Kingston, have filed their report with City Clerk Augustus Schepmoes. The awards made are as follows: To Alice W. Scott, James Scott, Amelia Scott, Agnes M. Vaux and Catherine Harris, $1,100; to James Scott $100, for land taken. The following are the assessments decided upon: On Robert H. Hurd, $250; Agnes M. Vaux, $100; William Darling, $50; Alice and James Scott, $400; James Scott, 100, and the City at large, $300.

MAN'S DEAD BODY FOUND IN WOODS.
Bottle of Prussic Acid Found Near by, Told of Suicide.

A dispatch from Middletown, N. Y., to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: The body of David V. Fogg, a bartender, of Bangor, Me., who disappeared from here March 5, has been found in the woods south of this City. A bottle of prussic acid was found near by, and told the story of suicide. Fogg had been employed in New York, Boston and Washington.

RAVAGES OF FIERCE FOREST FIRES.
Woods Have Been Laid Bare and Much Property Destroyed.

A dispatch from Middletown to THE FREEMAN, to-day, stated: A heavy rain has put out the forest fires on Shawangunk Mountains, in Sullivan County, but not before the woods have been laid bare. Hundreds of cords of wood and thousands of hoop-poles have been destroyed. The house of Gabriel Budd at Phillipsport and the barn of Jacob Budd have been burned.

Society Matters.
Last evening the members of the Rondout Quartet Club repaired to the residence of their Director, Professor J. W. Carl, and tendered him a serenade.

The Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, were inspected in Pythian Temple, in Kingston, last night. Assistant Inspector Magli who was expected, was unable to be present. The Division was inspected by Major Charles V. Hester, of Kingston, a member of the brigade staff. Major Hester said the Division was in excellent order.

The Welcome Rain.
The rain of yesterday and to-day was welcomed by farmers and local gardeners. Fields had become dry and spring crops were threatened with a drought. Cisterns here had become empty, and housewives feared the supply of water for washing would be exhausted. To-day fields and gardens bore evidence of renewed vigor.

Base Ball.
Result of yesterday's ball games: National League: At Pittsburgh—Chicago 7, Pittsburgh 1. At Indianapolis—Indianapolis 14, Cleveland 8. American Association: At St. Louis 8, Cincinnati 2. Other games in both the National League and American Association were prevented by rain.

Recorder's Court.
On complaint of one John Sullivan a young man named James Wilson was arraigned in Recorder's Court this forenoon, charged with assault. Wilson said he did not intend to inflict bodily harm, and that he struck Sullivan with a board "in fun." He was fined $5.

Building a New Dock.
The new dock being built for the Delaware & Hudson Canal Company on "the flats" opposite Ponckhockie, will be 500 feet in length. Many piles have already been driven. Difficulty has been experienced in dredging the Rondout Creek at that point, as the bottom is of hard clay.

Funeral To-Day.
Mrs. Rebecca Hammond, formerly of this City, died in New York on Wednesday night. Her remains were brought to Rondout last night, on the steamboat James W. Baldwin. Funeral services were held in St. Mary's Church this forenoon. She leaves four children.

Song at Musicals.
At a musical given at Eastern College, Poughkeepsie, this forenoon, Miss Georgiana Hayman, the soprano soloist at the Wart-St. Baptist Church, Rondout, sang "Of Thee I Am Thinking" and "An Old Garden."

People Who are Ill.
Stephen Schoonmaker, an old Hudson River Captain, is seriously ill at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Baisden, Eddyville.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.

News Gathered in the Religious Field in This City and Vicinity.

On Tuesday, in the Synagogue of the Congregation Emanuel, Rondout, services in keeping with the celebration of Washington as first President of the United States, will be held. The Rabbi, the Rev. D. Wolff, will preach a sermon in English.

A service authorized for use in the Diocese of New York State by Bishop H. C. Potter will be held in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout, on Tuesday, April 30. It is in the form of a thanksgiving service and relates to General George Washington.

The members of the congregation of the Rosendale Reformed Church will hold an entertainment on Friday and Saturday evening, May 3 and 4, for the benefit of the Sunday School connected with that Church. A musical and literary programme will be rendered.

SERVICES TO-MORROW.
The usual Sunday services will be held in the various Catholic churches.

The usual Sunday services will be held in the Livingston-St. Reformed Church.

In the Spring-St. Reformed Church, the Rev. A. Schmidt will preach morning and evening.

Professor B. F. Terry, of Madison University, will preach in the Wart-St. Baptist Church morning and evening.

The Rev. W. A. Shaw will preach in the Church of the Comforter at 3 o'clock p. m. Young People's prayer meeting will be held at 7:30 p. m.

The Rev. S. D. Noyes will preach morning and evening in the Fair-St. Reformed Church. Evening topic: "Voices from Washington's Inauguration."

The Rev. Dr. J. G. VanVelsiepe will preach morning and evening in the First Reformed Church. Evening subject: "A Hundred Years of Providence in American History."

The Rev. J. W. L. Davis will preach morning and evening in the Clinton-Avenue M. E. Church. Evening topic: "Our Country, Past and Present." Young People's meeting at 8 o'clock will be led by L. Van Aken.

The Rev. J. L. Davis will preach morning and evening in the Albany-Avenue Baptist Church. Morning service, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday School, 2 p. m.; morning service, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday School, 2 p. m.; morning service, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday School, 2 p. m.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the Zion Church, on the Bowery. The Rev. R. H. Still, of Newburgh, will preach at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. The role of the church will be celebrated at the afternoon service.

The Rev. J. F. Williamson will preach morning and evening in the Elmwood-St. Reformed Church. Evening subject: "How May We Know That We Are Christians?" A consecration meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, at 8 p. m., will be held by the Pastor.

The Rev. O. C. Haviland will preach morning and evening in the St. James M. E. Church. Morning subject: "The Christian in Two Worlds." Evening: "God in the World." Young People's meeting, at 8:30 p. m., will be led by Miss Josie Aiken. Subject: "Woman's Name Greatest Honor."

The Rev. Thomas Lamont will preach in the Wart-St. Reformed Church in the morning. In the evening an address on "Woman's Work in the World" will be made by Miss J. Gibson, of Albany. The Christian Endeavor meeting at 8:30 p. m. will be led by Miss Della Hyde. Topic: "The Young Christian."

SOLEMN REQUIEM MASS.
One year ago to-day the Rev. John J. Duffy, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, Rondout, died. In honor of his memory a Solemn Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's this forenoon. The funeral will take place at Grace Church, Plainfield, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Edward, who is still in the hospital, is reported better.

GOOD FOR NEXT WINTER.
During a fair held last winter by the Church of the Presentation, Port-Ewen, a handsome cutter was awarded the Rev. Messrs. Hoy, of Milford, Ulster County, for mercy of this City. The forenoon of 200 members of the Port-Ewen Church went to Milford on board the steam canal boat Rogers, Captain Quigley, with the cutter, to present it to Mr. Hoy. The Rev. Philip Albright, Pastor of the Church of the Presentation, accompanied the party.

Y. M. C. A. WORK.
On June 12 a meeting of the General Secretaries of the Second District of the Young Men's Christian Association will be held in this City.

The prayer service at the rooms of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, will be conducted by Jesse Deyo.

HUDSON RIVER RIPPLES BY MAIL, ETC.
News on the East and West Banks of the Hudson and Inland.

Worms are beginning to destroy fruit trees along the Hudson River.

William Smith, the life of Poughkeepsie, have returned from the trip to Florida.

A 300-pound sturgeon was caught in the Hudson River, at Troy, on Thursday evening.

A dead baby was found in a pool of water near the Winnieke Ball Grounds, Poughkeepsie, on Friday.

The annual appropriation bill adds $80,000 for the maintenance of the House of Refuge for Women in Hudson.

Six hundred and fifty tons of coal were unloaded at W. B. Dinsmore's dock at Staatsburgh one day this week for that gentleman's own use.

John Orlando, for throwing dynamite in a little creek at Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, to destroy fish, was sentenced to spend 40 days in jail or pay $40.

What was Said.
Recently, during a meeting in Kingston, a speaker had occasion to refer to slavery. He said, among other things, "I want to speak to you in favor of an institution that has been greatly spoken against. I want to speak to you of slavery and to say that it has some advantages. I believe that Satan is of advantage to a good many of us." Another speaker followed, who said: "For my part I always thought slavery was something like the chickens and the pig. I thought it was a good thing to get rid of it. Thank God we have got rid of it."

Industrial.
The demand for cement in Ulster County continues brisk. At the Newark Lime & Cement Company's works, Ponckhockie, 1,000 barrels per day are being manufactured. Operations are continued until 9 o'clock each night in the week.

March of Improvements.
On Monday the contractors expect to begin laying the foundation for the addition to the County Clerk's and Surrogate's building. Kingston. A heavy concrete foundation will first be laid. Upon this walls will be raised.

He Didn't Know.
In Recorder's Court, this City, yesterday, a prisoner was asked by the Court if "L-u-c" was the proper way of spelling his name. "I don't know," replied the prisoner, "I can't read."

Educational.
The new telescope for the New-Paltz Normal School has arrived. It cannot be used in looking at terrestrial objects except under very favorable conditions of the atmosphere. It has a five-inch objective glass.

Due to Sun Spots.
The late rain was due to the spots on the sun, 'tis said. It was a welcome downpour as relates to dust and agriculture.

Applied for a Patent.
A Tannersville man has invented a game entitled "to get sinners to the altar." He has applied for a patent.

Affairs of Local Railroads.
The Stony Clove & Catskill Mountain Railroad is carrying much freight these days.

An Odd Catch.
A buffalo fish was caught in a shad net at Staatsburgh one day recently.

Industrial.
Work has been begun on the New-Paltz brickyard.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.

THE COMING CONCERT PROMISES TO BE A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

The Programme Will Be Made Up of Music Such as Everybody Can Enjoy—Some of the Selections—Artists Who Will Take Part.

The benefit concert of the Kingston Philharmonic Society on May 8 in the Academy of Music, this City, promises to be a most successful and enjoyable affair. From the advance sales of tickets, even at this early date, it would seem that everybody is going to attend; and there is a growing suspicion that this enterprising and worthy Society will be to the surprise and delight of the community. Very little noise has been made about this concert. So far the singers have been rehearsing quietly at their room in the City Hall, under the careful direction of their Conductor, Professor George F. Hulshander. The chorus will not be as large as in the previous concerts, but it will embrace nearly all the best musical talent of the Society, and the audience is likely to be surprised at the efficiency shown. The programme will be made up almost entirely of the lighter class of music such as everybody always enjoys and appreciates, whether versed in musical science or not. The selections are bright and joyous, being entirely adapted to the evening of part songs and glees by a well drilled chorus, supplemented by solo numbers of a like nature. Such a programme has never been attempted here before. Among the selections is an English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New-York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like 'Tyrolean yodel,' it gave great pleasure and had to be repeated." Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English fugue by Carl Linde, "The Old German Shepherd's Song," over 20 parts. This will be sung by

The Kingston Daily Freeman.

VOL. XVIII.—NO. 162.

CITY OF KINGSTON (RONDOUT, P.O.) N. Y., SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 27, 1889.

WHOLE NO. 5,361.

SPECIAL FOR THIS WEEK.

—FIFTY DOZEN—

UNLAUNDRIED SHIRTS.

Warranted made of Wamsutta Muslin, Linen Bosoms, fully reinforced in back and front, endless facings in back and sleeves, all sizes 50 cents. Look through our

CARPET DEPARTMENT

—EXAMINE OUR—

WINDOW SHADES

—AND—

Lace Curtains.

—ASK PRICES OF OUR—

WALLPAPER.

Inspect our Dress Goods, and Ladies' and Gent's Furnishings, and you must be convinced that you can save money by purchasing from us. Fair play a jewel. Watch this space, there are bargains in it.

CROSBY & ENNIST'S,

No. 2 & 4 Union-Ave., Rondout, N. Y.

EASTER CARDS

—AND—

NOVELTIES

—AT—

S. L. DRAKE'S,

29 Wall-Street,

KINGSTON, N. Y.

Stebbins, Brodhead & VanWagenen.

Our Carpet Stock is more extensive and varied than we have ever before offered, and prices are such as to enable any thrifty family to have handsome floor coverings of some sort.

Stebbins, Brodhead & VanWagenen.

168 Strand and 21 Ferry-St.

O. And O. TEA

The Choicest Tea Ever Offered. ABSOLUTELY PURE. MOST DELICIOUS BEVERAGE. TRY IT. You will never use any other. Quality never varies. It is the HIGHEST GRADE LEAF, picked from the best plantations and guaranteed absolutely pure and free from adulterations or coloring matter. The packages are hermetically sealed and warranted full weight. It is more economical in use than the lower grades.

ORIENTAL & OCCIDENTAL TEA CO., LTD.,

Head Office, 35 Burlington St., New York.

For sale by

J. H. ALLEN, 71 Piermont-st., Rondout.

M. E. PARISH, Rondout, A. A. & C. R. STYLES,

KINGSTON, A. P. VAN BUREN, Rondout, P. E. DE BOY, Kingston, HENRIKSEN & SWART, Kingston, W. M. DIERCKMANN, Rondout.

BABY CARRIAGES!

BABY CARRIAGES!

BABY CARRIAGES!

—AT—

WACHMEYER'S

Furniture Warehouse.

A beautiful line to select from.

Reed and Rattan Carriages upholstered in the latest shades of Silk, Plush, Cretonne, Raw Silks and Satins.

Prices will be made to suit the purchaser. Look them over. They are bound to suit you, at

Wachmeyer's

178 THE STRAND,

RONDOUT, N. Y.

NOTES ON NEWS OF THE DAY.

The vote on Prohibition in Massachusetts is all in, and the majority against it is 46,475. Only four counties voted for the amendment, and these are the smallest in the state.

The Weldon bill passed the Canadian Senate yesterday. It had already passed the House of Commons. The Governor General will sign it, and Canada will cease to be a harbor of refuge for American criminals.

A DISPATCH from Sanford, Florida, denies the report of yellow fever there, and says there is only one case of sickness in the city. Doubts are entertained of the nature of the disease of the lady whose death was accredited to yellow fever.

The North Carolina Emigration Association was organized at Raleigh yesterday. Resolutions were adopted recommending the colonization of all North Carolina negroes in Arkansas. Both political parties were denounced as enemies of the colored man, and as using their efforts to make him leave the country.

Provisions are cheap in the western towns of this state. In Scioto, Cayuga county, one dollar buys six dozen eggs and four bushels of potatoes, and one farmer offers to "throw in" a bushel of onions. The Democrats out there are still denouncing the "robber tariff" and bewailing the sufferings of the over-taxed consumer.

The English Consul at Zanzibar has concluded to pay the £1,000 ransom demanded by the insurgent Chief Bushiri for the surrender of the missionaries, Revs. Taylor, Edwards and Hooper. After these men are rescued and safe, the British government will send down troops and thrash the life out of Bushiri. That is England's way.

The list of ladies for the quadrille of honor at the Centennial ball has been revised, and now Mrs. Harrison and Mrs. Cleveland are among them, as are also the names of Winthrop, and Jay. The new names are those of Mrs. William Herbert Washington, Mrs. E. F. Jones, Mrs. Edward Cooper, Mrs. Robert F. Weir and Mrs. Frederick J. De Peyster.

To-day is the sixty-seventh anniversary of Gen. Grant's birthday. He was born in 1822 at Point Pleasant, Ohio. He died at Mt. McGregor, near Saratoga, July 23, 1885. He is buried in New York, where his memory is being properly celebrated to-day, but where no monument has been erected in his honor. It is a comfort to reflect that he does not need one to immortalize his name.

The rain of yesterday was very severe southward. At Baltimore the fall was 3.48 inches, at Washington 2.68 and at New York 1.70. The storm extended along the Atlantic from Texas to Maine, and the northeast winds were high and dangerous along the New England and Middle Atlantic coast. Fair weather prevails in the Northwest and Rocky Mountain districts, and will reach New York in good time for the Centennial.

The Rhode Island and Delaware Legislatures have adjourned, after making as much noise as if they were doing business for the biggest states of the Union. Delaware will not get a constitutional convention, a local option law or a new state house. The first two were Republican measures which passed the House but were defeated in the Senate. The state house was a Democratic job, started in the Senate but killed in the House.

Mrs. SWIFT died in Philadelphia last Friday from indulgence last Sunday in eggnog, a beverage with which her husband always celebrates Easter. There was no poison in the drink, but the eggs had been kept too long in anticipation of the event. The grocer who sold them has been exonerated, on the ground that he could not see inside the eggs. The whole party was made violently sick, and several dangerously so.

The Tribune tells Gov. Hill that his opportunity is right before him. He has got through with politics in this state, and must look outside of it for further preferment. He will find high license and ballot reform popular everywhere else, even among Democrats. If these considerations, which are full of truth, have due weight with the Governor, he may permit the two bills to become laws. It would be a master stroke of policy for him to do so, and make him the foremost politician in the country.

Miss LILLIE MEYER, who was assaulted in a Brooklyn knit-jacket factory on Thursday last week by two fellow shop-girls named Cullen and McKenney, has been pronounced by her physicians beyond the hope of recovery. Her assailants will probably be tried for murder. Miss Meyer and her younger sister were well educated girls, who had been compelled to work in the factory since the death of their father. The Cullen and McKenney girls accuse them of "putting on airs" and holding themselves aloof from the others. For this offense Lillie was murdered.

The danger in which Vice-President Morton was placed yesterday by a railway accident proves the wisdom of Congress in the precautionary steps that it has taken. Had Mr. Morton been killed, Hon. J. J. Ingalls would return to his old place in the presiding chair of the Senate, as he was re-elected President pro tem at the recent session. No such election took place either to succeed Vice-President Arthur or Vice-President Hendricks in case of their vacating their offices, and both died before the beginning of the first regular session, the former by promotion to the Presidency and the latter by death. The narrow escape of Mr. Morton admonishes the country that the contingency of death is always to be considered. Of the twelve Vice-Presidents elected in forty-eight years preceding the election of Mr. Morton, only five served out their full terms. The office of Vice-President was vacant in that period for over eighteen years. The country is thankful that Mr. Morton escaped, and hopes he may live to honor the office to which he was elected till the end of his term and many happy years afterwards.

THE COMING CENTENNIAL.

Its Vastness Will Greatly Exceed The First Expectations.

NEW-YORK'S DECORATIONS.

About $3,000 Will be Spent Upon The City Hall.

THE NEXT WEEK'S WEATHER.

What is Predicted for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS.

Great Demand for Tickets For Banquet and Ball.

GENERAL TELEGRAPH NEWS.

PREPARING FOR THE CENTENNIAL.

About $3,000 Will be Spent in Decorating the City Hall.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—A gang of men to-day started the work of decorating the City Hall, notwithstanding the steady down-pour of rain. The material used was all of such a character as was not injured by the drenching it received. About $3,000 will be spent in the work, as it is designed to make the City Hall the most handsomely decorated building in the City. The Centennial Committee was to-day given a renewed permit to erect the Union Square stand, the Army Committee having agreed to set apart at the Mayor's request, seats for 2,500 women and children free of charge.

MORTON WILL ACCOMPANY HARRISON.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—Vice-President Morton was busy at work in his study with his Secretary, when a reporter called at his residence this morning. The Vice-President never looked in better health. "Yes, I escaped unscathed, as you see," he said pleasantly, in answer to the reporter's question. "The accident to the train as it pulled out of Baltimore, was only felt as a shock in our car at the rear, and did us no damage. I will meet President Harrison at Elizabeth on Monday and accompany the Presidential party to this City."

BEYOND EXPECTATIONS.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—A gentleman connected with the Centennial Committee stated to-day that the celebration had grown beyond anybody's expectations, and had, in fact, assumed such proportions that much dissatisfaction was bound to result. There were a hundred applicants for each ticket for the banquet and ball, and the Committee could not accommodate everybody. The Ambassadors and other members of the Diplomatic Corps desired to attend in state, that is, with their wives and attaches. Were they to do so there would not be a box in the Opera House for one else. As it is, some one has given up his box for the convenience of the Diplomatics. As a matter of fact, when the first steps were taken, the Speaker said, it was intended to confine the celebration to New-York State, but it had grown and grown and now it had become a National affair, and the difficulty in the way of accommodating everybody was simply enormous. Much trouble, this gentleman also said, was likely to arise from the fact that the ball tickets were only available for the people who were invited. In some cases they had been duplicated where attention had been called to the fact that certain prominent men's wives would be likely to accompany their husbands, would be unable to gain admittance to the ball unless furnished with a ticket. In one case, a gentleman, whose wife had received a ticket of invitation to the ball as one of the "next of kin," had asked how his wife was expected to attend the ball without an escort. The speaker said that in all probability there would be a hundred disappointed people of that kind on Monday night [outside the Opera House] and therefore a general outcry might be looked for next Tuesday. The rain-fall in this City up to 8 o'clock this morning [since the storm began] was 3.17 inches, with good prospects for a total of five inches before clear water.

NAVY YARDS TO BE CLOSED.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—The Secretary of the Navy has directed that all navy yards be closed on April 30.

SOME RECENT DISASTROUS FIRES.

Several Hundred Hands Thrown Out of Work by a Blaze at Lowell.

By Telegram to The Freeman. LOWELL, MASS., April 27.—The large five-story building of the Lowell Manufacturing Company, on Market street, known as the carpet mill, was gutted by fire early this morning, causing a loss of $200,000. The fire started in the card-room of the linen spinning department. The Company had nearly $400,000 worth of new machinery in the building. Seven hundred hands are thrown out of work.

LITTLE FALLS, Minn., April 27.—The Belle Prairie convent, in which four nuns conducted a school, was burned early yesterday morning. The 24 children were unharmed and marched out safely. Loss $20,000. It is believed the fire was incendiary.

APPOINTMENTS BY THE PRESIDENT.

Luther Caldwell, of New-York, Appointed to Position in U. S. Department. By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Luther Caldwell, of New-York, has been appointed Chief of the Bond Division in the Post Office Department, vice Morillo Noyce, resigned. Roger Wells, of Connecticut, has been appointed Financial Clerk of the Patent Office, vice Jacob Frahs, resigned. Francis A. Weaver, of Pennsylvania, has been appointed Chief of Division of Lands and Railroads in the Interior Department, vice John McMurray, resigned.

DELAWARE AND LEHIGH RIVERS RISING.

Washout on a Railroad 90 Feet Long and Eight Feet Deep.

By Telegram to The Freeman. EASTON, Pa., April 27.—The Delaware and Lehigh Rivers are rising here rapidly and much damage is expected. The Lehigh Valley Railroad has a washout 90 feet long and eight feet deep on its east track at Pine Hollow. Owing to the continuance of the storm the track could not be repaired to-day.

THREE STRIKERS FINED.

By Telegram to The Freeman. PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 27.—Three of the Duquesne Steel Works strikers were brought into court, to-day, and fined $500, $100 and $25 respectively for contempt of court in refusing to obey an injunction, issued several days ago, restraining them from interfering with workmen.

SPECTATORS CHEERED WHITE CAPS.

Man Whose Wife was Compelled to Support Him Given a Whipping.

By Telegram to The Freeman. CINCINNATI, April 27.—Last night a body of masked White Caps administered a whipping with long willow switches to Frank Gehrlinger, of Riverside, a suburb west of the City. Gehrlinger's offense is general worthlessness. His wife supported him and the family by keeping bootlers. Last night a number of the bootlers saw Gehrlinger knock his way down with a bucket in the back yard and then, without helping her up, walked off to a saloon for a drink. He was still in the saloon when a boy told him a man wanted to see him out doors. He went to the door, when he was seized, tied to a tree, partly deprived of his clothing and whipped for half an hour. A crowd of spectators cheered the White Caps.

IN PLUMMERVILLE BALLOT BOX CASE.

Reid Excused from Answering Certain Questions by Grand Jurors.

By Telegram to The Freeman. LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 27.—In the Plummerville ballot-box case yesterday Charles C. Reid submitted to the Court his written answers to the questions asked him in relation to the statements made to him by O. T. Bentley. He stated that Bentley had made all the statements in connection with the ballot-box robbery to him as an attorney. This will excuse Reid from stating to the Grand Jury the substance of Bentley's communications. Reid will be required to appear before the Grand Jury again, however, and give such other facts as he may know.

Unknown Steamer in Distress.

By Telegram to The Freeman. BEAUFORT, N. C., April 27.—An unknown steamer is anchored close to the beach flying a signal. Pilots have attempted to cross the bar, but owing to the heavy sea they have been compelled to give up the attempt. The steamer is flying a rather brisk north-west wind, and temperature somewhere between 55 and 60 degrees. Tuesday is likely to bring even better weather, as the present storm will be followed by an area high barometer, extending generally over the Atlantic coast.

Weather Predictions for Next Week.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Captain Allen, who is the Predictions Officer at the Signal Service Bureau during this month, says the indications are that Monday in New-York will be a fair day, with a rather brisk north-west wind, and temperature somewhere between 55 and 60 degrees. Tuesday is likely to bring even better weather, as the present storm will be followed by an area high barometer, extending generally over the Atlantic coast.

To Receive a Large Pension.

By Telegram to The Freeman. LAWRENCE, Mass., April 27.—Timothy Reardon, a laborer, has received word from Washington that his claim for an original pension has been allowed. He receives almost $4,000 in arrears and $72 per month hereafter. He is totally blind. Thirteen years ago he applied for a pension, but could not furnish the required evidence. He served one year.

Only Saw a Few Persons.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Governor Hovey, of Indiana, called at the White House this morning and spent some time with the President. Subsequently the President received Senator Hovey by special appointment, and with these exceptions he excused himself to all callers.

Fatal Quarrel Over a Bond.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WHITE PLAINS, Mo., April 27.—William Summers, one of the most prominent men in the State, was killed last night by Hon. A. Livingston, a lawyer. The men quarreled about a bond they had given for a young man who had left the State.

To be Closed on Sunday.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Postmaster General Wainmaker has ordered that hereafter the Post-Office Department shall be closed on Sunday to the clerks and all employees thereof, except the required watchmen, engineers and firemen.

Farmer's Terrible Death.

By Telegram to The Freeman. GARY, Ind., April 27.—W. G. Duck, a farmer, met with a terrible death yesterday. He was driving a team of oxen and fell under a roller he was using, the roller was pulled over him and he was killed instantly.

Sailed for Europe.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—Among the passengers who sailed for Europe to-day on the steamer Etruria were ex-Secretary of War Endicott and wife and ex-Secretary of the Navy Whitney and wife.

Secretary Noble and Wife Depart.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary and Mrs. Noble left Washington this morning for New-York. The Secretary is not expected to return until the conclusion of the Centennial ceremonies.

Will Not Get Chance to Steal.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—Inspector Byrnes to-day had another score of "crooks" held for examination on May 2. The notorious "Kid" Miller was among those arraigned to-day.

Condition of Duke of Edinburgh.

By Cable to The Freeman. LONDON, April 27.—The Duke of Edinburgh reached Portsmouth to-day. His condition is better, though he is suffering from extreme weakness.

International Anti-Slavery Conference.

By Cable to The Freeman. LONDON, April 27.—An International Anti-Slavery Congress will be held at Luzerne, Switzerland, in July. The Papal Delegate will preside.

Secretary Blaine Continues to Improve.

By Telegram to The Freeman. WASHINGTON, April 27.—Secretary Blaine continues to improve in health and expects to be able to go to New-York Sunday night.

King of Holland to Go Abroad.

By Cable to The Freeman. THE HAGUE, April 27.—The King of Holland will go abroad on May 2 with the hope of affecting a complete cure of his disease.

Auburn Charter Bill Signed.

By Telegram to The Freeman. ALBANY, April 27.—The Governor has signed the bill amending the charter of Auburn.

Gold Exports.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—The gold exports this week were $1,140,000; imports, $110,000.

Death of a German Politician.

By Cable to The Freeman. BERLIN, April 27.—August William von Bernuth, a noted German politician, is dead.

MUTINY ON BRITISH BARK.

Presence of Harbor Police Put An End to Difficulty.

THE NEW LICENSE LAW.

Will Close 1,500 Drinking Places In Boston City.

MINISTERS WERE RANSOMED.

Taylor, Edwards and Hooper, Captured by Bushiri, Released.

SAMOAN COMMISSIONERS.

Made a Social Call on Bismarck This Afternoon.

BOY CAPTURED A BURGLAR.

MUTINY ON A BRITISH BARK TO-DAY.

Men Claimed That Vessel was Unseaworthy and Refused to Work.

By Telegram to The Freeman. NEW-YORK, April 27.—A mutiny occurred to-day, on the British bark J. Walter Scammel, now lying off Bodley's Island. The bark was to sail to-day, with a cargo of lumber for Rio Janeiro. Five of the sailors refused to work, claiming the ship was unseaworthy and in a leaking condition. They also claim that the Captain had shipped five incompetent men. A fight took place and one man was knocked down. Mate Foster ran up a signal of distress and the police patrol went out to the vessel. The moment the officers clambered over the side of the bark peace was restored. The case was referred to the British Consul.

1,500 DRINKING PLACES MUST CLOSE.

Only One Sporting House in Boston Has Received a License.

By Telegram to The Freeman. BOSTON, April 27.—The new license law, which goes into effect May 1, limits the number of licensed places in the City to 750, and 1,500 drinking places must close by the date named. The list of rejected applications included some of the most prominent dealers in the City. There is not a sporting house in town except Councilman William Mahoney's that has been granted a license. Among the noted sporting resorts that will have to close are those of ex-Governor Thomas Butler and ex-Secretary George H. Moore, Michael Keenan, James Keenan and Edward McAvoy. There were three notable rejections, among them John Miller, who is reported to be the wealthiest Irish American in the City; Colonel Lawrence J. Logan, one of the leading Democratic politicians of the City; and Michael Doherty, who in life had a reputation of being a leading dealer in liquors and owned three stores. A number of small hotels are restricted to 3 per cent. beverages. The oldest ale house in the City, the "Bell in Hand," on Williams' Court, must close. This hostelry has been established nearly a century and has been the resort of many notable men of past generations. A fair estimate of the loss to those who have been refused licenses is $1,000,000. About 3,500 bar-keepers will be thrown out of employment.

BOLD BURGLAR CAPTURED BY A BOY.

The Robber was Engaged in Plundering A Chicago Residence.

By Telegram to The Freeman. CHICAGO, April 27.—The thirteen-year-old son of J. C. Howard, Chief Clerk of the Washburn Railroad, wounded and captured a burglar last night who had just plundered his father's residence. The Howard family have suffered two or three times from burglars and last evening Charles, being alone in the house, played watchman. Securing his father's revolver he crept himself near a window. After an hour's wait he saw two men climbing in with a bag. Charles waited until the bag had been filled with valuables, and the burglars were well outside. Then he pursued yelling, "Police." No police appeared and one man turned upon the boy menacingly, whereupon Charles opened fire. The fourth shot brought down one burglar with a shattered thigh bone. His companion got away. A patrol wagon then dashed up, secured the bag of plunder, the wounded burglar and Charles. The youngster was held at the station house several hours until it was certain that the burglar's wound was not fatal.

MATE OF VESSEL NEARLY KILLED.

By Three Men at Oswego, who are supposed to be Union Sailors.

By Telegram to The Freeman. OSWEGO, April 27.—Last night three men, supposed to be Union sailors, went at midnight on board the schooner John Schutte, of Toledo, which had a "scab" crew and attacked the Mate, Joseph Josephs, of Toledo, and beat him with belaying pins and clubs. They then took him ashore, pounded him to insensibility and threw him into a cellar of a burned house. He crawled out, more dead than alive, and got to a house near by. He identified Alexander Skillen, the President of the Lake Seaman's Association, who has been arrested as one of the assassins. Josephs may die. Skillen was committed without bail to await the result of Josephs' injuries. The crew had been driven from the vessel previous to the assault. Skillen claims an alibi.

DECISION BY TEXAS SUPREME COURT.

Conductor's Suit for Libel Against a Railroad Was Not Actionable.

By Telegram to The Freeman. AUSTIN, TEX., April 27.—The Supreme Court yesterday reversed the decision of the lower Court in the case of Richmond, a railroad conductor who sued the Missouri Pacific Railroad Company for damages for publishing him on the black list as a conductor discharged for carelessness. The Supreme Court holds that the case was not actionable for libel on account of the absence of express malice in the publication.

Missionaries Ransomed.

By Cable to The Freeman. ZANZIBAR, April 27.—The Rev. Messrs. Taylor, Edwards and Hooper, who were captured by Bushiri and held by him for a ransom of £1,000, have been released on the payment of the sum demanded and have arrived here.

Called Upon Prince Bismarck.

By Cable to The Freeman. BERLIN, April 27.—Messrs. Kasson, Phelps and Bates, the American delegates to the Samoan Conference, made a social call upon Prince Bismarck this afternoon.

[Other telegraph on page 3.]

$75,000. This sum wanted in a live-on business, A trade already begun to be extended, and Guano works enlarged. Address CALL BOX 20, KINGSTON, N. Y.

THINGS DOCTORS DO NOT KNOW.

Their Ignorance Illustrated in the Robinson Poisoning Cases.

There was a commotion among the doctors at a recent meeting of the Massachusetts Medical-Legal Society when it was found that reporters for secular newspapers were taking notes. Papers bearing specially on the notorious Robinson arsenical poisoning cases had been announced.

Dr. Holt declared that there was general ignorance of the symptoms of arsenical poisoning, and claimed that because of this ignorance the Robinson poisoning cases had gone on without arousing suspicions on the part of medical men. There were, he said, at least eight cases of criminal poisoning; seven occurred within five years, and in one family, and the other was that of a relative. The cases were all treated by physicians of large practice, prominent in the profession, and yet no suspicion of arsenical poisoning was aroused until an organization in which the victims were insured tried to determine by investigation why so many persons died suddenly in this family.

In support of his statement as to the ignorance of medical men of the symptoms of arsenical poisoning, the doctor remarked that certificates of death were given in five of the Robinson cases as follows: Pneumonia, typhoid fever, meningitis, bowel disease and Bright's disease.

The startling disclosure of the stupid ignorance shown in the treatment of these cases is quite in keeping with the usual indiscretion manifested by the profession in the treatment of persons who are sufferers from the slow and subtle poison which is generated in the system from a diseased state of the kidneys. The afflicted are treated for consumption, apoplexy, for brain and various nervous disorders, when in most instances, it is shown, when too late, that the patient was wrongfully and ignorantly treated for a supposed disease, which was, in reality, but a symptom of kidney disease, and should have been timely treated as such by the use of Warner's Safe Cure, which is the only remedy known that can be successfully relied on in the treatment of such disease.

Such exhibitions of stupidity by those who profess great intelligence in such matters is calculated to destroy confidence, and it can well be said that a remedy like Warner's Safe Cure, which places the direct means of preserving health in the sufferer's hands, is far more meritorious than high-priced, medical advice, which is so generally worthless, and too often based upon an erroneous opinion as to the true cause of illness.

Human life is just a little too precious to the average individual to be sacrificed to the bigotry or ignorance of others.

SATURDAY, APRIL 27.

GOOD HEALTH.

Keep your feet warm and your head cool and you will secure it.

HOSIERY

for the feet and

###

REASONS

Why Ayer's Sarsaparilla is preferable to any other for the cure of Blood Diseases.

Because no poisonous or deleterious ingredients enter into the composition of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla contains only the purest and most effective remedial properties.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is prepared with extreme care, skill and cleanliness.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is prescribed by leading physicians.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is for sale everywhere, and recommended by all first class druggists.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a medicine and not a beverage in disguise.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla never fails to effect a cure when persistently used, according to directions.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a highly concentrated extract, and therefore the most economical Blood Medicine in the market.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla has had a successful career of nearly half a century, and was never so popular as at present.

Thousands of testimonials are on file from those benefited by the use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla,

PREPARED BY

DR. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.

Sold by all Dealers in Medicine.

RHEUMATISM.

For More than Twenty-five Years—A Complete Recovery—The Means Used.

I had Inflammatory Rheumatism. For nearly a year I had to be fed and turned in bed. I could find no relief. My stomach was ruined with powerful medicines taken to effect a cure so that I was compelled to live on bread and water. I suffered for twenty-five years in this way. I was induced to try Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, made at Rondout, N. Y., and thanks to his medicine. Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy is my best friend. By its use I am enabled to enjoy a good night's rest; also food, such as meat and pastry, which I have been deprived for years, showing that the Favorite Remedy has no equal for the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia as well. If any should doubt this statement, I will send the ready proof at once.—GABRIEL BASSINO, Troy, N. Y.

I Am Now Well,

It is my pleasure and absolute duty toward those who are struggling for very life against the deadly to add testimony to the wonderful efficacy of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. My wife was in a hopeless condition, despaired of by the physicians. Dr. David Kennedy's Favorite Remedy was resorted to; not because any hope was placed in it, but because nothing else remained. The effect was little short of a miracle. With the use of the second bottle, she regained her strength and continuing the treatment has fully recovered.—JAY SWART, Albany, N. Y.

Disease of the Kidneys

Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy,

PREPARED BY

DR. DAVID KENNEDY, RONDOUT, N. Y.

$1 per bottle. Six for $5. By all druggists.

RIKER'S

—RELIABLE AND JUSTLY CELEBRATED—

FAMILY MEDICINES,

TOILET REQUISITES,

PERFUMES, ETC.

All of which are legally guaranteed to give entire satisfaction or they cost you nothing.

RIKER'S COMPOUND

Sarsaparilla

Purifies the Blood and Invigorates the System. It contains the Active Properties of Sarsaparilla, Dandelion, Yellow Dock, Burdock, Chamomile, Gentian, Rhubarb, Mandrake, Iron, etc., etc., which are so combined as to act with the most desirable effect in Eradicating from the system all such disorders as arise from Impure Blood and an Inactive Liver, such as

ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

ECZEMA, SCROFULA, DYSPEPSIA, HEADACHE,

CATARH, NERVOUS DEBILITY,

BILIOUSNESS,

And that "Tired Feeling so common to all at times."

Bottles containing 17½ oz. (nearly double any other) 75 cents.

We guarantee this Sarsaparilla to be much better and more satisfactory than any Blood Purifier in existence.

And we further guarantee it to be and do all that you may expect, or we will refund the price.

INSIST ON HAVING

RIKER'S SARSAPARILLA

And you are positively sure cure. Do not allow any one to persuade you otherwise.

Sold by all dealers throughout the United States or will be sent free of charge to any part of the United States on receipt of price by

WM. B. RIKER & SON,

Druggists and Manufacturing Chemists, Established 1846, at 353 Sixth Avenue, New York

565 Washington Street and 55, 57 and 59 Clarkson Street, N. Y.

Descriptive catalogue and price list mailed free on application.

See that our trade mark is on all goods purporting to be Riker's.

THE STATE OF COLORADO.

SOME OBSERVATIONS BY A FORMER ANNANDALE COLLEGE STUDENT.

Denver, a Vast Sanitarium, Filling Up with Hosts of Eastern Invalids—Handsome Avenues and Stately Buildings—The South Platte "River."

The following letter has been received by THE FREEMAN from James Sheerin, a former student at Annandale College, Dutchess County, who is now a tutor at St. John's College, Denver:

WESTWARD HO!

"Bill Nye," in a late article, makes a fearful pun on that old expression, "Westward, Ho!" He speaks of Nebraska farmers tickling the ground with the hoe, then wickledly as in parenthesis, "the westward ho." But Colorado soil yet responds very feebly to the tickling of the hoe. It does not respond with laughing, blossoming face to either the light or heavy touches of this famous "Westward ho." That is, speaking generally. If it had irrigation it would be a perfect soil. This is proved by the beautiful gardens and lawns in Denver, where the citizens have managed to secure a bountiful supply of water. Who knows but that five years from now Congress may have enriched this vast territory of Western Nebraska and Kansas, and Eastern Colorado, by streams of water brought from the Missouri or some other quarter? The possibilities of the West are immeasurable.

A HEALTHY SANITARIUM.

"Denver! Thirty years ago who knew that name? To-day who does not know it? It is now not only the synonym of wealth and progress, but more than all else it is filling the hearts of thousands of pale consumptives with hopes of health and life. To-day Colorado, and more particularly Denver, is a vast sanitarium, rapidly filling up with hosts of Eastern invalids. One cannot walk the streets of Denver without meeting a coughing victim. Is this an unhealthy place? The stranger is tempted to ask. But a few months' residence shows him the glories of its climate. He sees friend after friend, who have been given up by the doctors in the East, living here in health and happiness. The caution must always be thrown in, however, that one must be before the last spark of hope is out. Where is this Denver, and is it like Eastern cities in any particular? Is it not a frontier mining town with the appearance thereof, such as frequent shooting, gambling, etc.? So asks the New Yorker. Well, my sluggish Eastern friend, the simple fact is, that you are behind the times. While you have been sleeping away the years of your youth, a country, whose hills teem with precious metals, has sprung up step by step the steep stairway of progress. Yesterday was a rough mining town, and to-day it is a city of the future. To-day she is a country of homes, churches and schools, the like of which the East has not. Again I say this is generally speaking. Any sensible person knows that there must be back villages and towns which yet retain a degree of the old rough life. But I speak now of the representative cities and towns of Denver, of Pueblo, of Colorado Springs, and—I may surprise you—of Leadville. Yes, Leadville, so great are the strides of this state, that to-day that City which was eight years ago was the nest of murderers and gamblers, is a City the size of Kingston, and I do not lower Kingston, but rather compliment it, by saying Leadville is its equal in wealth and culture. And why shouldn't it be? What did I say in the beginning of this letter about Colorado being a sanitarium—the continental resort? This is just the reason. Your Eastern invalids of wealth and taste flock here with those qualities, and they are making Colorado's capital a paradise of culture. I like most Easterners, came vaguely expecting to see herds of buffalo roaming the plains with howling painted Indians at their heels. I even hesitated about bringing my stock of high collars, stiff hats and cutaway suits for fear the jolly cowboy would make windows in my chest. What did I find? A people of even more stylish dress than in the East; a city of the highest culture, where the greatest players and operas make their longest and most appreciated runs, and not an Indian or buffalo in sight. Disappointing, wasn't it? But I am determined not to be disappointed. There are some Indians a few hundred miles from here surviving—yes, that is the word, surviving, but scarcely moving—on Government support. These I am bound to see if it takes my last cent. I learn also that there is a stuffed buffalo in the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, which I shall see even at the expense of a special trip. More Indians and buffaloes are not going to knock my boyish dreams in the head so easily as they may think."

A COMPARISON.

"Denver is compared to Washington, and I am inclined to accept the comparison. Like that famous Capital, her streets are broad and distances magnificent. Every street is bordered with trees, a fact all the more remarkable when one considers the aridity of the soil, and back of these trees, in the midst of the prettiest gardens, stand elegant modern residences of every conceivable form of architecture. The architects seem to have had powers plenipotentiary, and to have used them. There is not a style which one cannot see on these handsome avenues. Romanesque, Queen Anne, Gothic, all are here. The school buildings and churches are models, and the best of all is that every building in the City is either of brick or stone. Of wood is used in the interior of the houses, materials, for which I feel thankful. Some American cities seem doomed to short life by their flimsy structures. Denver may escape that by her substantial buildings."

WITH EYES OF IMAGINATION.

"I sit here by my window in a large building to the east of the City. Looking eastward one can see the vast prairie stretching out before him for miles until the horizon stops his gaze. Then with the eyes of his imagination he can continue the view for hundreds and hundreds of miles, away beyond the 'Father of Waters' until the low hills and distant valleys are seen, even to the looking on a still further, his eyes fall upon those delightful and cool Catskills, with the 'Old Colonial' nestling cozily at their feet. It sometimes long for a breath of that bracing Hudson River air, and the sight of a cool, refreshing rain storm. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for the summer. I went and sat down on the banks of one and listened to the faint ripple of the running water. Constant sunshine is the rule here, rain and snow are the exceptions. We are denied the luxurious growth of bush and tree, of grass and sweet-smelling flower, in which you Kingstonians revel. We are denied the rippling song of running brook, the delicious coolness of bubbling spring, and, most longed for all, a sight of the noble old Hudson, with its burden of sail and steam craft. We long for these pleasures, I say—yet I doubt whether Denverites would give up their beautiful magnificent Rockies and delightful climate for all that. The other day the irrigating ditches were flooded with water for

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

IMPORTANT PART THIS OLD COLONIAL CITY WILL TAKE IN IT.

The Steamboat Mary Powell and Steamer "City of Kingston" will be in Water Parade—Cornell House and Fourteenth Separate Companies.

That this old Colonial City is truly American, and has not forgotten the noble deeds of the historic chieftain who led his troops to a victory which forever settled the question whether this country should be free or forever subject to a foreign power, is manifested in the interest its citizens are evincing in the coming Washington Centennial Celebration in New York. Not alone will a very large number of its people visit the Metropolis to pay dutiful homage to the memory of the first President of the United States, but one of its finest fire organizations and its crack military company will take prominent part in the event, an example which no doubt will be emulated by a future generation a hundred years hence. Nor is this all. This City is proud—and justly so—of its number of large, fleet and well appointed steamboats that are owned here. Several of these boats will hold conspicuous places in the Merchant Marine Naval Parade, on Monday, the first day of the Celebration.

MERCHANT MARINE NAVAL PARADE.
The steamboat Mary Powell, which has been assigned a place next to the Vice-Admiral's ship, will leave here at an early hour on Monday morning for the Metropolis. The "Queen of the Hudson" will be brave with flags and will be commanded by Captain A. E. Anderson, who recognizes the special distinction and honor bestowed upon the Powell. On Tuesday the Powell will convey the West Point cadets to the Metropolis, where they will display a part of their governmental instruction in the grand military parade. Another element in the patriotic gala will be the steamer "City of Kingston," Captain W. S. VanKeuren, which will leave here on Sunday evening at 10 o'clock. Other boats owned by the Cornell Steamboat Company will also be found in line. The display of water craft will astonish the tens of thousands who will be held in it. It will be the most magnificent moving panorama ever seen in this or any other country. It is expected that over 500 vessels of all descriptions will take part. An excellent opportunity of witnessing this sight will be given to those who had from the decks of either the Powell or the "Kingston," as both these boats will pass within hailing distance of each vessel in line when rounding the stake boats in the East and North Rivers. A favorable opportunity will also be given to seeing President Harrison and his Cabinet, who will be on the revenue cutter Dispatch. The procession will start from a point south of the statue of "Liberty Enlightening the World," and move up East River as far as Williamsburg, when it will "round the bend" and proceed down and past the Battery and Castle Garden, affording an excellent view of the lower part of the Metropolis, which will be profusely decorated, as well as the harbor and rivers. After passing these points the procession will sail a few miles up the North River, where a splendid view of the outlines of some of New York's most notable buildings can be obtained. After the parade has finished the "Kingston" will return to Rondout, reaching here in ample time to make its customary Monday night trip, only taking its departure from its wharf a little later than its usual hour.

THE MILITARY PARADE.

On Tuesday the "Kingston" will remain in New York until 6 o'clock p. m. in order to give its patrons from this City and other points in the Hudson a chance to view the brilliant military pageant, and other interesting sights commemorative of the auspicious occasion. The members of the Fourteenth Separate Company will be in the parade, and there is not the slightest doubt but that they will assist themselves in a manner that will not only redound credit upon the organization, but will place them still higher in the estimation of their friends and attract favorable attention and comment from strangers. The Company will be commanded by Captain John G. VanEaton.

THE CIVIC PARADE.

On Tuesday night Cornell House Company, Archibald Winter, Foreman, headed by the Twenty-First Regiment Band, of Poughkeepsie, will leave here on the steamboat James W. Baldwin. They will take with them their handsome carriage and horse service cart. They will take part in the civic parade, which will eclipse anything of a like nature ever before attempted in the busy Metropolis. This event will be the last day of the Centennial in arriving in New York. The Cornell will be received by the Veteran Firemen's Association, of that City, whose guests they will be during their stay.

WILL ENACT IMPORTANT PART.

Thus it will be seen that this City will enact a most important part in honoring the memory of the Father of His Country.

SOME MINOR NOTES.

The famous Chicago Zouaves will pass through this City on Monday on their way to the New York Centennial Celebration.

"Are you one of the 'Four Hundred'?" asked one Rondout citizen of another, to-day. "No," was the reply, "but I am one of the million who is going to attend the Centennial."

Captain L. Luckenbach, formerly of Rondout, will be Commodore of the Eighth Squadron in the Second Division in the Merchant Marine Naval Parade in the Bay of New York, on Monday.

It is surprising that no native of Delaware has thus far boasted that he has a piece of ice in his possession that was taken from the Delaware River by his grandfather the day after Washington made his memorable trip across that stream.

"Mamma," said a Rondout boy, "I know what kind of cherry tree George Washington cut down with his little hatchet."

"What kind of cherry tree?"

"A puckerberry cherry tree."

"How do you know this?"

"Because George's father didn't sour on him."

"Are you a Centennarian?" said a Rondout man to an old, gray-headed resident.

"Was I sent on an errand?" replied the eager man, whose hearing is a little impaired.

"No; do you take me for a boy?"

The questioner did not seek further for information. He saw that the old man was not to be trifled with.

When the members of Cornell House Company return from New York City on Wednesday night from the Centennial they will be given a cordial welcome. They will be received by several fire companies here. The Pythian Band has been engaged by Rapid Hose and other companies are making arrangements for the proposed reception.

Minor Notes Around Town.
On page 5 can be found three columns of interesting matter.

Parasols sold in this City this spring give ample evidence of the mechanical ingenuity of the present age.

Strawberries are offered for sale in Rondout markets for 32 cents per quart. They are "grown" in Virginia.

Accident.
A woman named Mrs. William Ward, residing on Murray-street, Rondout, fell and struck against a cistern box yesterday, and then broke a rib on her right side. Dr. A. J. Hot Keefe reduced the fracture.

It Roils the Fishermen.
Owing to the roilly condition of the water in the Hudson River for the past two days, shad fishermen have met with but little success.

Promised for Sunday:
Rain, stationary temperature, north-easterly winds.

IN AND OUT OF THE PORT OF RONDOUT

Arrivals at Tidewater—Reported for Carriage of Coal—Tugs, Etc.

Yesterday the tug Conqueror was aground with six loaded ice barges on the flats near Germantown.

There arrived at tide-water, at Eddyville, yesterday, 30 Delaware and Hudson Canal boats, laden with 3,000 tons of coal.

The whistle of the steamboat James W. Baldwin was blown at the mouth of the Rondout Creek last night at 10:19 o'clock.

The following craft were reported at the Rondout Department of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company to-day for cargoes of coal: Schooner Helen Thompson, 170 tons; barges General Taylor, 350; P. R. Washburn, 100; N. E. T. Company, No. 17, 200; N. E. T. Company, No. 4, 400.

When the propellers J. H. Cordis and J. C. Hart left New York last night the following craft were reported in their tow: Ice barge Simpson, to Glasgow; barges, Lizzie, Toledo, E. Penny, to Rondout; box No. 55, to Rondout; schooners Ella Francis, to Athens; Flora Condon, to Eddyville; Charles E. Sears, to Newburgh; Delaware and Hudson Canal boats, to Rondout.

WILL OF LATE CAPTAIN SCHOONMAKER.

All the Deceased's Estate, Both Real and Personal, Left to Widow.

The will of the late Captain Cornelius Marius Schoonmaker, U. S. N., who was drowned during the tornado at Samoa, has been proved and admitted to probate in Ulster Surrogate's Court, Kingston. The will was made in 1879, when Mr. Schoonmaker was a Commander in the Navy. The witnesses to the will were Hon. M. Schoonmaker and Emma M. Cooper, of this City. The following is a copy of the will:

Know all men by these presents that I, Cornelius Marius Schoonmaker, residing in the City of Kingston, in the County of Ulster and State of New York, Commander in the United States Navy, do make, publish and declare my last will and testament in manner and form following, that is to say: I give, devise and bequeath to my wife, Matilda R. Schoonmaker, all my singular, real, both real and personal of every kind and nature, to have and to hold the same to her heirs, executors, administrators and assigns forever, and I do hereby constitute and appoint my said wife, Matilda R. Schoonmaker, sole executrix of my last will and testament, and revoke all former and other wills by me made. In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand this fifteenth day of September, in the year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy-nine.

C. M. SCHOONMAKER.

FAMILY WHO ARE SORELY AFFLICTED.

One Son in Hospital and Another Son Dies

The family of General D. T. VanBuren, formerly of Kingston, now of Plainfield, New Jersey, have had a severe affliction. Their son Edward, while in New York last Friday, was injured by a Broadway car. He was taken to Chamber-Street Hospital. The General and Mrs. VanBuren were at the hospital attending to him, when they received a telegram that another son, Frank VanBuren, while riding horseback at Plainfield, was thrown and that he was fatally injured. The young man died yesterday. He was 21 years of age. The funeral will take place at Grace Church, Plainfield, to-morrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Edward, who is still in the hospital, is reported better.

FILED REPORT WITH CITY CLERK.

Amount of Awards Made in the Warren-Street Matter.

The Commissioners in the matter of the opening of Warren street, Kingston, have filed their report with City Clerk Augustus Schepmoes. The awards made are as follows: To Alice W. Scott, James Scott, Amelia Scott, Agnes M. Vaux and Catherine Harris, $1,100; to James Scott $100, for land taken; to John C. Hubbard, $200; to Alice and James Scott, $400; James Scott, 100, and the City at large, $300.

MAN'S DEAD BODY FOUND IN WOODS.

Body of Francis Acid, Found Near by, Told Story of Suicide.

A dispatch from Middletown, N. Y., to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: The body of David V. Fogg, a bartender, of Bangor, Me., who disappeared from here March 5, has been found in the woods south of this City. A bottle of music acid was found near by, and told the story of suicide. Fogg had been employed in New York, Boston and Washington.

RAVAGES OF FIERCE FOREST FIRES.

Woods Have Been Laid Bare and Much Property Destroyed.

A dispatch from Middletown to THE FREEMAN, to-day, stated: A heavy rain has put out the forest fires on Shawangunk Mountains, in Sullivan County, but not before the woods have been laid bare. Hundreds of cords of wood and thousands of hoop-poles have been destroyed. The house of Gabriel Allen at Phillipsport and the barn of Jacob Budd have been burned.

Society Matters.

Last evening the members of the Rondout Quartette Club repaired to the residence of their Director, Professor J. W. Carl, and tendered him a serenade.

The Uniformed Rank, Knights of Pythias, were inspected in Pythian Temple, in Kingston, last night. Assistant Inspector Magill who was expected, was unable to be present. The Division was inspected by Major Charles V. Heister, of Kingston, a member of the brigade staff. Major Heister said the Division was in excellent order.

The Welcome Rain.

The rain of yesterday and to-day was welcomed by farmers and local gardeners. Fields had become dry and spring crops were threatened with a drought. Cisterns here had become empty, and housewives feared the supply of water for "washing" would be exhausted. To-day fields and gardens bore evidence of renewed vigor.

Base Ball.

Result of yesterday's ball games: National League: At Pittsburgh—Chicago 7, Pittsburgh 1. At Indianapolis—Indianapolis 14, Cleveland 8. American Association: At St. Louis—St. Louis 8, Cincinnati 2. Other games in both the National League and American Association were prevented by rain.

Recorder's Court.

On complaint of one John Sullivan a young man named James Wilson was arraigned in Recorder's Court this forenoon, charged with assault. Wilson said he did not intend to inflict bodily harm, and that he struck Sullivan with a board "in fun." He was fined $5.

Building a New Dock.

The new dock being built for the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company on "the flats" opposite Ponckhockie, will be 500 feet in length. Many piles have already been driven. Difficulty has been experienced in dredging the Rondout Creek at that point, as the bottom is of hard clay.

Funeral To-day.

Mrs. Rebecca Hammond, formerly of this City, died in New York on Wednesday night. Her remains were brought to Rondout last night, on the steamboat James W. Baldwin. Funeral services were held in St. Mary's Church this forenoon. She leaves four children.

Sang at Musicals.

At a musicale given at Eastman College, Poughkeepsie, this forenoon, Miss Georgiana Hayman, the soprano soloist at the Wurts-Street Baptist Church, Rondout, sang "Of Thee I Am Thinking" and "An Old Garden."

People Who are Ill.

Stephen Schoonmaker, an old Hudson River Captain, is seriously ill at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. J. J. Baisden, Eddyville.

PASTORS, PEOPLES AND CHURCHES.

News Gleaned in the Religious Field in this City and Vicinity.

On Tuesday, in the Synagogue of the Congregation Emmanuel, Rondout, services in keeping with the celebration of Washington as first President of the United States, will be held. The Rabbi, the Rev. D. Wolff, will preach a sermon in English.

A service authorized for use in the Diocese of New York State by Bishop H. C. Potter will be held in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Rondout, on Tuesday, April 30. It is in the form of a thanksgiving service and relates to General George Washington.

The members of the congregation of the Rosendale Reformed Church will hold an entertainment on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 3 and 4, for the benefit of the Sunday School connected with that Church. A musical and literary programme will be rendered.

SERVICES TO-MORROW.

The usual services will be held in the various Catholic churches.

The usual Sunday services will be held in the Livingston Street Lutheran Church, the Rev. A. Schindler will preach morning and evening. Professor B. F. Terry, of New York, will preach in the Wurts-Street Baptist Church morning and evening.

The Rev. W. A. Shaw will preach in the Church of the Comforter at 3 o'clock p. m. Young People's prayer meeting will be held at 7:15 p. m. The Rev. S. D. Noyes will preach morning and evening in the Fair-Street Methodist Church. Evening topic: "Voices from Washington's Inauguration."

The Rev. Dr. J. G. VanSlyke will preach morning and evening in the First Reformed Church. Evening subject: "A Hundred Years of Providence in American History."

The Rev. J. W. Ackery will preach morning and evening in the Clinton Avenue M. E. Church. Evening topic: "Our Country, Past and Present." Young People's meeting at 6:30 p. m. will be led by L. VanSlyke.

The Rev. J. L. Davis will preach morning and evening in the Albany-Avenue Baptist Church. This will be the farewell Sunday of Mr. Davis as Pastor of the Church. The Young People's meeting will be held at 6:45 o'clock p. m.

The order of services at St. John's Episcopal Church, Kingston, will be: Sunday School, 9 a. m.; morning service, 10:30 a. m.; Sunday School, 2 p. m.; evening, 7:30 p. m. The Rev. Holmquist, of Baltimore, will preach morning and evening.

Quarterly meeting will be held in the Zion Church, on the Bowery. The Rev. R. H. Hull, of Newburgh, will preach. The Rev. J. H. Hull, of Newburgh, and preaching at 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. The rite of communion will be celebrated at the afternoon service.

The Rev. J. F. Williamson will preach morning and evening in the Elmendorf-Street Presbyterian Church. Evening subject: "The Word We Know That We Are Christians." A consecration meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society, at 6:45 p. m., will be led by the Pastor.

The Rev. Oscar Haviland will preach morning and evening in the St. James M. E. Church. Morning subject: "The Word We Know That We Are Christians." Evening: "God in National History." Miss Josephine, at 6:30 p. m., will be led by Miss Hosa Krum. Subject: "Woman's Name Greatest Honor."

The Rev. Thomas Lamont will preach in the Wurts-Street M. E. Church in the morning. In the evening an address on "Woman's Work Among the Nations" will be made by Miss J. Gibson, of Albany, who returned missionary from the West Indies. The service will be held at 6:30 p. m., will be led by Miss Della Hyde. Topic: "The Growing Christ."

SOLIMAN REQUIEM MASS.

One year ago to-day the Rev. John J. Duffy, Pastor of St. Mary's Church, in New York, died. In honor of his memory a Soliman Requiem Mass was celebrated at St. Mary's this forenoon. The Rev. P. J. Prendergast was the chief celebrant, assisted by the Rev. P. Morris. Among the clergymen present were the following: The Rev. Messrs. William McGill, of New York City; E. Conroy, of St. Joseph's Church, Kingston; W. B. J. Boddy, of Wilbur; M. Kuhn and J. J. Schiwin, of St. Peter's Rondout; Joseph Hooey, of Milton. There was a large attendance at the mass. The services were impressive.

GOOD FOR NEXT WINTER.

During a fair held last winter by the Church of the Presentation, Port-Ewen, a handsome cutter was awarded the Rev. Joseph Hooey, of Milton, Ulster County, formerly of this City. This forenoon about 30 members of the Port-Ewen Church went to Milton on board the steam canal boat Rogers, Captain Quigley, with the cutter, to present it to Mr. Hooey. The Rev. Philip Ahern, Pastor of the Church of the Presentation, accompanied the party.

Y. M. C. A. WORK.

On June 12 a meeting of the General Secretaries of the Second District of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be held in this City.

The prayer service at the rooms of the Kingston Young Men's Christian Association at 3:30 o'clock to-morrow afternoon, will be conducted by Jesse Deyo.

HUDSON RIVER RIPPLES BY MAIL, ETC.

News on the East and West Banks of the Hudson and Inland.

Worms are beginning to destroy fruit trees along the Hudson River.

William Smith and wife, of Poughkeepsie, have returned from their trip to Florida.

A 300-pound sturgeon was caught in the Hudson River, at Troy, on Thursday evening.

A dead body was found in a pool of water near the Winnickie Ball Grounds, Poughkeepsie, on Friday.

The annual appropriation bill adds $60,000 for the maintenance of the House of Refuge for Women in Kingston.

Six hundred and fifty tons of coal were unloaded at W. B. Dismore's dock, at Staatsburgh one day this week for that gentleman's own use.

A John Orlando, for throwing dynamite in a little creek at Pleasant Valley, Dutchess County, to destroy fish, was sentenced to spend 40 days in jail or pay $40.

What was Said.
Recently, during a meeting in Kingston, a speaker had occasion to refer to slavery. He said, among other things, "I want to speak to you in favor of an institution that has been greatly spoken against. I want to speak to you of slavery and to say that it has some advantages. I believe that Satan is of advantage to a good many of us." Another speaker followed, who said: "For my part I always thought slavery was something like the measles and chicken-pox—the only good thing about it was to get rid of it. Thank God we have got rid of it."

Industrial.

The demand for cement in Ulster County continues brisk. At the Newark Lime & Cement Company's works, Ponckhockie, 1,100 barrels per day are being manufactured. Operations are continued until 9 o'clock each night in the week.

March of Improvements.

On Monday the contractors expect to begin laying the foundation for the addition to the County Clerk's and Surrogate's building, Kingston. A heavy concrete foundation will be laid. Upon this walls will be raised.

He Didn't Know.

In Recorder's Court, this City, yesterday, a prisoner was asked by the Court if "L. u. c." was the proper way of spelling his name. "I don't know," replied the prisoner, "I can't read."

Educational.

The new telescope for the New-Paltz Normal School has arrived. It cannot be used in looking at terrestrial objects except under very favorable conditions of the atmosphere. It has a five-inch object glass.

Due to Sun Spots.
The late rain was due to the spots on the sun, 'tis said. It was a welcome downpour as relates to dust and agriculture.

Applied for a Patent.
A Tannersville man has invented a game entitled "to get sinners to the altar." He has applied for a patent.

Affairs of Local Railroads.
The Stony Clove & Catskill Mountain Railroad is carrying much freight these days.

An Odd Catch.
A buffalo fish was caught in a shad net at Staatsburgh one day recently.

Industrial.
Work has been begun on the New-Paltz brickyard.

PHILHARMONIC SOCIETY.

THE COMING CONCERT PROMISES TO BE A SUCCESSFUL AFFAIR.

The Programme Will be Made Up of Music Such as Everybody Can Enjoy—Some Of the Selections—Artists Who Will Take Part.

The benefit concert of the Kingston Philharmonic Society on May 8 in the Academy of Music, this City, promises to be a most successful and enjoyable affair. From the advance sales of tickets, even at this early date, it would seem that everybody is going to attend; and there is a growing suspicion that this enterprising and worthy Society is to be surprised and complimented with an enthusiastic and substantial benefit which will only be limited by the capacity of the hall, and which the industrious singers so well deserve.

Very little noise has been made about this concert. So far the singers have been rehearsing quietly at their room in the City Hall, under the careful direction of their Conductor, Professor George F. Hulander. The chorus will not be as large as in the previous concerts, but it will embrace nearly all the best musical talent of the Society, and the audience is likely to be surprised at the efficiency shown. The programme will be made up almost entirely of the lighter class of music such as everybody always enjoys and appreciates, whether versed in musical science or not. The selection of songs, bright and joyous, being entirely adapted to the early May Day resonant gladness and rejoicing of nature at this delightful season. The concert will also be unique in the fact that it will present an evening of part songs and glee by a well drilled chorus, supplemented by solo numbers of a like nature. Such a programme has never been attempted here before. Among the selections is an "Old German Shepherd's Song" by Klenze. This will be sung by the ladies alone. It was sung by the famous Rubinstein Club, of New York, at Chickering Hall, on Thursday night, and the New York Tribune said of it: "With a refrain like a Tyrolean yodel, it gave great pleasure and led to the repeated applause. Another of the choral numbers is a highly humorous English glee by Caldwell, entitled, 'Little Jack Horner.' This is sure to 'bring down the house.' Then a beautiful part song, by Pissini, 'We'll Gaily Sing and Play,' introducing the 'Lost Rose of Summer,' as a solo for soprano and tenor alternately, is exceptionally bright and pleasing. Miss Sophia C. Hall, the talented contralto, who gave so much pleasure at the initial concert of the Society, last summer, has returned missionary for this concert. She has just been secured by an aristocratic New York Church at a large salary. Miss Anna Anna P. Graham, of New York, whom many have heard and speak of highly, will be the soprano soloist. Further details of the concert and programme will be given next week. It will be the closing entertainment for the season by the Philharmonic Society. Rehearsals will be suspended until autumn probably.

WATERVLIET CONTESTED ELECTION.

Advocates Received from 200 Republicans Who Voted for Gove.

A dispatch from Albany to THE FREEMAN to-day stated: In the Eleventh District of Waterliet, at the election on April 8, a score of Albany police surrounded the polling place and turned out the Republican Inspector, Poll Clerk and Watchers and the anti-Herlick Democratic Watcher. The Democratic Inspectors and Poll Clerk then made the count and returned a vote of only 87 for Gove, the Republican candidate for Supervisor. Mr. Gove, through counsel, has secured affidavits from over 200 Republicans of the district that they voted for him. The vote, as counted by the Democratic Inspectors, McMahon and Sullivan, was: Cummings (Herlick Democrat), 377; Gove, (Republican), 87; McLean (Murphy Democrat), 90. Proceedings are being taken before County Judge Scott for the issue of writs for the arrest of the two Democratic Inspectors. The vote in the Eleventh Waterliet District last fall was: Harrison, 333; Cleveland, 251; Fiske 5.

Mrs. Harrison's Floral Gift.

[From the Home-Side Herald.]

Mrs. Harrison, the wife of the President, retains pleasant recollections of Honesdale and tender memories of her nephew, Walter Scott Lord, whose remains are resting in Glen Derry Cemetery. Last week she caused to be forwarded from the White House conservatory to Mr. Peterson, of this place, a large floral pillow, arranged by the gardener of the conservatory, of pure white flowers, with an appropriate inscription in purple immortelles, with the request that it be placed upon Mr. Lord's grave. Her request was complied with early on Easter Sunday morning. Scott was a great favorite with both the President and Mrs. Harrison.

Rumor Was Incorrect.

[From the Home-Side Eagle.]

It is going the rounds that President Harrison will be the guest of Vice-President Morton, at Ellerslie, right away after the Centennial. A letter to THE Eagle from the Vice-President says: "The rumor is incorrect so far as Ellerslie is concerned. The President and Mrs. Harrison will be our guests at our home in New York during the Centennial celebration."

Children and Wild Flowers.

[From the New-Paltz Independent.]

The hearts of the little children have been happy in searching and finding wild flowers of late. There are liverworts, meadow pinks, anemones and yellow lilies or adders tongue. The wild violets are not here yet, but the sweet-scented, cultivated kind are in bloom. Trailing arbutus is in bloom likewise, but we are not sure there is any growing in the vicinity of New-Paltz.

Amusement Note.

Last night, in the Opera House, the three act comedy "Moselle" was rendered by Waite's Comedy Company to an appreciative audience. This afternoon at the matinee performance the play was "Kathleen Mavourneen." To-night "The Hidden Hand" will be the attraction. On Sunday evening a sacred concert is announced with a special programme.

Good Enough to Live In.

[From the Catskill News.]

Coxsackie is good enough to live in, because out West they force the bank officers with pistols to surrender the stockholders' money. Well, how was it in Coxsackie? The cashier took about $90,000 and asked no questions. He didn't even as much say "Hold up your hands!"

The "Fiddler" Gave Out.

A correspondent of the Hunter Phoebe writes: "The party at James Redmond's, Tannersville, on Tuesday evening of last week, was a very enjoyable affair. If the fiddler had been willing, and his arm had been strong, I think the jig would have lasted 40 hours long."

Around About Ulster County.

A gray horse of A. V. N. Elmer, of New-Paltz, died 34 years, died one day recently. It is claimed the chimney of a school house in the town of Shawangunk was built by a cross-eyed mason.

Rhinecliff.

Mrs. Richard H. Randolph is ill. The interior of the Post Office is being improved by the new Postmaster. The wall of the Post Office has been repaired and it now presents a neat appearance.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

HERBERT CARL

has recently purchased the Bankrupt Stock of A. B. Krum, at 39 North Front-street, where he will sell the same at bargain prices, consisting of China and Glassware, Crockery, etc.

Swart Brothers, moved to 26 North Front-street, near to Bernstein's, will be open Saturday morning, April 27.

SPECIAL RATES AND TRAINS TO NEW-YORK.

To afford all an opportunity to attend the Washington Inauguration Centennial and witness the great military parade on April 30, the West Shore Railroad has arranged to run a special low rate excursion leaving Kingston 7:10 and 7:55 A. M., at rate of $1.75 for the round trip. Tickets at this rate are good going only on above special train and will be available for return passage until May 2, onclusive. Excursion tickets good going on regular trains will also be sold April 27 to 30 inclusive, and for morning trains of May 1, good returning until May 6 at a slight advance over above rate. Call on West Shore agent for program and dodger giving full information.

CLAIRVOYANT